Prepared Address By Pres. Johnson, Read Here In '65, Cited By Dean At Luncheon

"In the July 11, 1865, issue of the Adams Sentinel we find the following statement: 'Three important events mark the history of Gettysburg, the great battle on the first, second and third of July, 1863; the dedication of the National Cemetery in November, 1863, and the laying of the cornerstone of the Soldiers' National Monument on Tuesday last.' It was at this final event we find Johnson's Gettysburg Address." Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter told the members of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg at their luncheon meeting in the Hotel Gettysburg Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Glatfelter, dean of the faculty and a professor of history at Gettysburg College, indicated that many had shown skepticism about the title of his talk, believing it should have been the world-famous Lincoln Address. The lesser-known address was a message sent by President Andrew Johnson, 17th president of the United States, at the time of the laying of the cornerstone for the Soldiers' Monument.

PLANNED MONUMENT

"The talk of erecting the monument began almost as soon as the war began in 1861," Dean Glatfelter said. "But this idea was forgotten until the battle occurred here. Shortly after the battle, the idea developed for the cemetery and shortly thereafter the idea of the monument, not only to the soldiers of Gettysburg or Adams County, but to all the soldiers, was developed. Early plans called for it to be erected in the National Cemetery where Lincoln had spoken, a permanent memorial to be dedicated with a parade and ceremony on the fourth of July, 1865."

"Great plans were made for inviting the great generals of the war, the governors of the northern states and the Cabinet. Gen. Howard was to be the orator of the day, and President Johnson was to be invited to lay the cornerstone, make the dedication and deliver a few appropriate remarks."

BORN IN POVERTY

Dr. Glatfelter told his audience that at that time Johnson was a new president, an untitled man.

EASTER SEAL SOCIETY TO ELECT IN NOV.

Preparations for the annual election of directors and officers of the Adams County Crippled Children's Society in November were announced at the September meeting of the board of directors Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist Church here.

The directors voted two percent of the Easter Seal sale proceeds for this year to the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults for use in research. The board annually makes a contribution toward this fund.

The treasurer, Mrs. George B. Inskip, reported that the Easter Seal sale last spring netted a total of $3,837.18 under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Biesecker with Mrs. Robert MacAskill as co-chairman. The 1963 sale results topped those for 1962 by more than $500, reports showed.

$612 FOR CAMPING

The Rev. Amos D. Meyers of York Springs, society president, presided Wednesday when reports for the summer months showed the society spent $612 during the summer to send crippled boys and girls from this county to camps operated by the state society.

Other summer expenditures included $400 to the Warner Hospital for the use of quarters at the hospital for the society's treatment center and sums for drugs, new shoes for crippled youngsters, transportation to clinics and sums for new braces and canes. On numerous occasions during the last three months, crippled tots from the county were taken to the children's hospital at Elizabethtown for treatment or checkups at society expense.

President Meyers and the society's secretary, Miss Grace Kenney, were designated as delegates to the state society's annual convention to be held at Altoona October 17-19.

Plans were launched for the Easter Seal sale next spring, starting 30 days before Easter.

The board listed nominations for the annual "brace for an ace" award given each year at the state convention.

AIR POLLUTION CHARGE HEARD BY COUNTY BD.

The Adams County commissioners Wednesday afternoon heard a committee of six present evidence that the Hercules Alchlor plant at Seven Stars is polluting the area with smoke.

The commissioners set next Wednesday at 2 p.m. as the time for a meeting to be held in the lower courtroom of the courthouse on the matter. The supervisors of Franklin, Cumberland and Highland Twp., officials of the division of air pollution of the state Department of Health and officials of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority have been invited to meet with the commissioners then.

A report on air pollution tests made by the state department's division of air pollution in April is among the matters expected to be discussed at the meeting.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

Kenneth Hess, who had been chairman of a meeting on the same subject at Cashtown Monday night, was chairman of the committee of six which met with the commissioners Wednesday. They alleged that there is continuous emission of a smog from the plant, that there is some danger of explosion and that the emission of the smoke or smog is reducing property values in the area and may constitute a danger.

The meeting next week is being held to determine, if possible, if there is any danger from the plant's smoke and if anything can be done to alleviate the conditions about which the committee protested.

Another problem handed the commissioners came in the form of a letter from Paul J. Kopp, Spring Grove Rd. 3, 21st District commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Kopp told the commissioners he wished to call their attention to Round Hill Cemetery (Continued On Page 2)

FIREMEN CALLED

Littlestown firemen were called Wednesday afternoon at 4:57 to a grass fire at the property of Maurice Worley, along the Barlow-Littlestown Rd.

"Body" On Tower Is Football Stunt

"There's a body hanging from the Culp's Hill tower."

That was the excited call to the Quick Call Center at the engine house Wednesday evening and borough police, some firemen and National Park rangers rushed to investigate.

They found that in truth there was an object hanging from the tower, but it only appeared to be human.

On close examination they found that someone had hung a stuffed figure on the tower bearing a printed sign conveying the hope that Gettysburg High School's football team will defeat Boiling Springs Friday.

Police and the Rangers considered the matter, then let the firemen cut down the "body."

BOWERS HOME DAMAGED BY $2,000 BLAZE

Damage totaled $2,000 when fire burned out a room at the home of John Bowers, Gettysburg Rd., Wednesday night about 10 o'clock. Barlow firemen were summoned and were assisted by Gettysburg firemen in battling the blaze.

The fire was confined to a bedroom normally used only for storage by the family. Barlow firemen said the room was not wired and the cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Members of the family smelled smoke and found the room afire. The Barlow firemen arrived in time to confine the blaze to the one room. The fire had burned nearly through one wall into another room when the firemen arrived, but they were able to halt the blaze at that point.

A bed and other furnishings in the room were totally destroyed. In addition, firemen said, there was heavy damage to clothing, furniture and paint from smoke in the remainder of the house.

The story and a half house is located on the road from the Emmitsburg Rd. to the Taneytown Rd. at the Barlow fire house.

2 COUNTIANS ARE SAVED BY NEW DRAFT LAW

President Kennedy's new married-man draft regulation kept two Adams County men out of GI muffs at the very last moment. Scheduled for induction into the armed forces as part of the contingent of five called from Adams County for the September draft, Donald Wagner, of the Hanover area, and Ellsworth Miller, of the Littlestown area, left here Tuesday morning at 7:20 o'clock with John Hawn, Errol Livelsberger and Edward Deardorff for induction.

Arriving at New Cumberland Army Depot, they began the process of exchanging civilian life for military life. They had received the numbers that would be theirs for their military life — and thereafter, as far as the military was concerned.

Then as they were going through the last steps of the processing — getting closer and closer to the point where they took the oath and became part of the military, Air Force Master Sgt. Billy H. Cox, chief clerk of the depot's Armed Forces Examination and Induction Station, received an order that had just come into the depot from Armed Forces officials.

He stopped the men from Adams and Franklin Counties who were being processed.

He read the message he had received, stating that President Kennedy had issued an order which halted the drafting of married men. The message added that if any of the married men wished to volunteer they could continue the processing and be inducted.

The married men said "We're going home," and left.

The single men continued the business of being inducted.

FROCK TO BE OFFICIAL FOR BW DISTRICT

Stanley Frock, Littlestown, was introduced Wednesday evening at a meeting in the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank of the Boy Scout commissioners of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District as the new assistant commissioner for Exploring.

Crosby N. Hartzell, district commissioner, said Frock succeeds Dr. Richard Greenholt, Littlestown, who has been named to a new post to be announced tonight to the district committee at the West St. Branch.

Hartzell said Frock, advisor for Explorer Post 84 of Littlestown for the last three years, had also served as advisor for Explorer posts in Maryland before moving to Adams County, and "brings a wide experience in the Exploring program to his new post."

72 TO JAMBOREE

The commissioners were asked to encourage their units to forward immediately the names of Scouts or Explorers planning to attend the sixth National Boy Scout jamboree to be held at Valley Forge July 17-23, 1964.

Cost of the jamboree will be $85 per boy. The York-Adams Area Council will be restricted to attendance by 72 boys and leaders at the jamboree, the commissioners were told. Each unit has been notified that it may submit the name of only one of its members. The York-Adams Council has set up a "first come, first served" arrangement for its (Continued On Page 3)

Maryland Suit Tests Support For Colleges

A suit, the first of its kind, was filed Tuesday in the circuit court of Annapolis, Md., by the Horace Mann League to enjoin the use of state funds for the construction of buildings at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg; College of Notre Dame, Baltimore; Western Maryland College, Westminster, and Hood College, Frederick.

The test case maintains that the use of tax-raised funds for the support of sectarian schools and colleges is prohibited by the federal and state constitutions.

The Maryland legislature voted funds in 1962 and 1963 for facilities including two science buildings, a dining hall, a dormitory and a classroom building, the amounts ranging from $500,000 to $750,000 for each of the four colleges. St. Joseph and Notre Dame are Catholic institutions, Hood is affiliated with the United Church of Christ and Western Maryland with the Methodist Church.

VOTED OTHER FUNDS

On other occasions in the past the legislature has also voted funds to private institutions such as Washington College, Chestertown; Johns Hopkins U., Baltimore; Loyola College, Baltimore, and Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, for similar construction projects.

The Horace Mann League is an organization of educators and citizens founded in 1922 and dedicated to the principles of Horace Mann, a Massachusetts lawyer and educator, who is regarded as one of the founders of public education in the United States. Officials of the league said that the law seemed to be settled in Supreme Court decisions that tax moneys could not be used for support of sectarian schools until fairly recently when the contention was advanced that the constitutional ban did not apply to support of colleges and universities if the appropriations were earmarked for what was asserted to be a nonreligious purpose, such as building a library, laboratory or dormitory.

There have been no decisions as to whether institutions of higher learning are in a different category from elementary and secondary schools.

WILL USE BIBLE READINGS WITH OTHERS; OMIT LORD'S PRAYER

Littlestown schools have supplanted daily reading from the Bible and recitation of the Lord's Prayer with a program of "readings from the pens of the world's greatest humanitarians" — including the writers of the Bible, plus a minute of meditation.

In a report to the Littlestown Joint School Board, the school administration said that as a result of the recent Supreme Court decision banning morning devotions in the schools it has set up a program that will include "A Thought for the Week" which will be posted in each homeroom and grade room, and on which the teachers will "comment from time to time" during the week.

Each morning in the time formerly devoted to reading from the Bible and recitation of the Lord's Prayer, readings will be made from "the pens of the world's great humanitarians, including poems, extracts from great essays, passages from the Holy Bible, verses from the Koran, as well as many other great writings." This will be followed by one minute of silent meditation, and thereafter the pledge to the flag. Each Friday the morning meditation program will be presented to all over the intercommunications system. The other days of the week each teacher will be in charge of the program in her own room.

"WITH RESERVATIONS"

A committee comprising James L. Witt, chairman, Miss Dorothy P. Crabbs, Mrs. Louise Collins, Mrs. Mildred Koons and Charles E. Ritter has been named to work out the program for the year, listing readings to be used. In addition, teachers may include "any (Continued On Page 11)

Use Bayonets To Arrest 100 Teen Students

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Bayonet wielding troops arrested more than 100 teen-age students in a rock-throwing riot at a technical school today.

The riot followed midnight arrests of other students, and a morning of tension between troops and teen-agers at high schools and university faculty branches throughout Saigon.

Student unrest, temporarily squashed last week after more than 2,000 students were arrested, was rising again.

Truck loads of riot police and troops in full battle gear roared from one potential trouble spot to another.

3 SOLDIERS HURT

At least three soldiers were reported seriously injured, several students were bruised and a deputy provincial chief suffered a bloody nose in an hour-long clash between students and troops at the Secondary School of Decorative Arts.

The first demonstration flared up, at the government school of fine arts, where troops arrested seven students after more than 600 had gathered in a noisy demonstration denouncing the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Most medical students at the University of Saigon boycotted term examinations.

More than 2,000 were to take exams and newsmen counted barely 400 who turned up. More than 1,000 students of the university are still believed in jail out of the 2,000 arrested Aug. 25.

FIVE INJURED IN 2 CRASHES

Five persons were injured in two auto accidents Wednesday. Three of them were hurt when two cars collided at 12:50 Wednesday afternoon 12 miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway.

State police said Mrs. Anne Brown, 47, Pittsburgh, was driving east and slowed for a car ahead that was about to make a right turn. Donald C. Linebaugh II, 25, York, according to police, was also traveling east and his car struck the rear of the Brown auto, causing $250 damage to the Brown vehicle and $450 to Linebaugh's car. Prepared

He stated that in many ways he compared with Lincoln, and in many ways there was a marked contrast. Johnson was six weeks older than Lincoln, was also born to abject poverty, was possessed with the same burning zeal to be educated. However, he was undoubtedly a man with a more direct and simpler personality than Lincoln and not subject to Lincoln's moods. He was more experienced in political life and political office, having been a governor of Tennessee, a U.S. senator and had distinguished himself as being the only southern senator who refused to walk out of the Senate at the time of the trouble prior to the Civil War.

"Like Lincoln, he had that mystic love of the American union which is not a part of our make-up today. He had asked that he be wrapped in an American flag and placed in his coffin at his death. In contrast to Lincoln, he had a very strong class consciousness; he was always aware of his fight on the way up and did not like the upper crust of the white people of the south," Dean Glatfelter said.

Johnson and his family did not move into the White House until the beginning of June, 1865. At the beginning of his administration, great pressure was placed on him from the throngs of people who went to him for advice and help on both personal and political problems. From the diary kept by his aide and secretary, we learn that the President began to show signs of illness and fatigue, and at the advice of his friends he took a rest from the labors of his office for a short time.

Thus it was that Johnson was not able to be present at the celebration in Gettysburg on July 4, 1865, but he wrote a letter which was delivered by the U.S. marshal and read at the ceremonies.

Dr. Glatfelter pointed out that President Johnson seemed anxious to stress three things in his message: (1) His belief that this country had a mission ordained by God; that the Almighty was determined to preserve us as a people; (2) his emphasis on the liberation of the poor white people as well as the Negro population, and (3) his stress that while monuments of stone are worthwhile, monuments based on people's devotion to a principle are even more lasting; he hoped that this monument would be matched by a monument in the hearts of people that would be a dedication to the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

STUDENT SINGS

Dr. Glatfelter was introduced by Mrs. Jay P. Brown, program chairman.

Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, chairman of the music committee, introduced Paul Dietz, a student at Gettysburg College and a member of the college choir, who sang several selections. He was accompanied by Robert E. Baker, also a student at the college.

Mrs. Lee M. Hartman presided at the meeting. Mrs. L. C. Keefeauver gave the invocation. Mrs. Howard Hartzell, chairman of the membership committee, introduced three new members: Mrs. J. Clair Donley, Mrs. Claude M. Boycott and Mrs. Charles Rogers.

Mrs. Hartman introduced the past presidents who were at the luncheon: Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, Mrs. L. C. Keefeauver, Mrs. A. R. Wentz, Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Mrs. Harold L. Ecker, Mrs. R. D. Wickerham and Mrs. Guile W. Levever.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — A Prayer Fellowship Circle will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. The York Springs Church of God will hold a rummage and bake sale Saturday at the parsonage.

Donald Golden, a student at the New York City, spent several days recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Golden. Mrs. Elsie Wolf, Harrisburg, is visiting her son-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Winand. Another daughter, with whom she resided, has been in a serious condition in the Harrisburg Hospital.

The York Springs Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet next Sunday night in the parish house. Mrs. Guy Klingel, New Oxford, recently visited her brother-in-law George Fickes and daughter Marguerite Fickes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yost and family have moved from the farm they recently sold to a property near Orstown, Cumberland County.

YORK SPRINGS — Dr. Peter Jenkins, chief administrator of the Good Hope Sanatorium, spoke recently at the York Springs Church of God Church about Hong Kong and his related work in that city.

He said buildings cannot be built fast enough to take care of the refugees and growth of the population. Both sides now try to keep the refugees from entering Hong Kong. Many still come in by the way of small boats. Christian teachers for public schools are much in demand to help stem the tide of Communist infiltrations in the schools. Most of the refugees are loyal to the nationalist government of Chiang Kai-shek.

One of their biggest problems at the moment is lack of rain water, according to the speaker. Most of their water is caught and stored when it rains. Folks have to wait for hours in long lines to carry water from public faucets. And these are only turned on a few hours a day, every three or four days. This water must be used over several times before it is finally eliminated.

Dr. Jenkins reported that the people of China are most appreciative of American aid from its churches, welfare societies and directly from governmental sources. A number of American nurses serve in his hospital.

FROBISHER BAY, N.W.T.

(AP) — The word cooperative wasn't known in the Canadian Arctic five years ago.

Today it's considered the hottest discovery since someone brought the news that the South-easters would actually pay good money for those carvings the Eskimos did for kicks.

Take Cape Dorset, on the southwest tip of Baffin Island, as an example. Until 1959, Eskimos in the community were having a tough time. They hunted and fished independently, with mere survival as the ultimate goal. They couldn't afford to maintain ammunition supplies and their kayaks were rotting.

James Houston, a Northern Affairs Department administrative officer, went into the community and got the Eskimos together in a co-op venture. He found a few good stone carvers who took on the job of teaching others.

This year Oshawetuk, a Cape Dorset Eskimo, came to Froberish Bay to the first conference of Arctic Co-ops, armed with the latest annual financial statement. It showed the Cape Dorset Co-op sold $123,810 worth of graphic arts and crafts in 1962, that the co-op retail store now has three departments and that more than

The bodice was trimmed in front with lace and a bow. The full, bouffant skirt featured a lace panel in front and bow in the back and a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a prayer book covered with a white orchid and pompon streamers.

BRIDE'S ATTENDANTS

Miss Norman Shermeyer, the maid of honor, wore a street-length dress of cotton blue chiffon over taffeta, fashioned with a round neckline and short cap sleeves, full flared skirt with side drapes and bow in the back. Her short veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones and she carried pompons and rosebuds.

The bride attendants were Miss Sylvia Weaver, Littlestown R. 2, and Miss Dorothy Felty, Harrisburg. They wore hot pink dresses and veils, styled similar to that of the maid of honor.

Richard Shermeyer served as best man and the ushers were James Shermeyer and David Crouse, Hanover R. 1.

The ring bearer was Stephen Little, Hanover R. 4. The flower girls, Emma Shermeyer and Lori Dutterer, wore blue taffeta fashioned with round necklines and full puff sleeves and full skirts, with a fabric rose on the front of the bodice.

Lewes Ferry To Get New Approach

DOVER, Del. (AP)—An alternate approach route for the Cape May, N.J.-Lewes, Del., ferry, starting from the ferry terminal at the Coast Guard Station here, has been approved by the Delaware River and Bay Authority.

Opposition to the previously approved Route 18 approach voiced by Mayor Otis H. Smith of Lewes and other residents at a governor's hearing led to the alternate approach.

The new route leads from the Coast Guard Station along the railroad tracks to Kings Highway, turns west to County Road 269 and then north to Route 18. Gov. Elbert N. Carvel had threatened to veto the route if an alternate approach was not set up. William J. Miller, Jr., chief engineer for the authority, wrote the governor Wednesday that authority members agreed to the alternate route in a telephone poll.

Unknown Donor Mails Cash To Needy Persons

BARNEVELD, Wis. (AP) — Southwestern Wisconsin residents who have received anonymous cash gifts, ranging from $60 to $100, wondered today if they are soon to know the identity of their benefactor.

Another $100 gift has been received, and with it came a clue—the first since the money began arriving without explanation last month. The gifts have been received by 34 persons, both young and old and in all walks of life. In most cases they came at a time when they would be the most help.

The latest recipient is Mrs. Watson, a widow who is secretary of the Barneveld school. She recently underwent surgery.

RECEIVED $100
She received on Tuesday five $20 bills in an envelope postmarked at 5 p.m. Sunday in near-by Mineral Point. A sheet of paper folded around the money carried the printed inscription, "Silence is golden."

Mrs. Watson's address was printed on the envelope, which also provided the first possible hint of the identity of the sender. "Mrs. Marry L. Madison, Wis.," was printed in the upper left-hand corner.

Mrs. Watson said the partial name was not enough for her to make an identification.

SISTERS CLUB AGED VISITOR

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—Two elderly half sisters accused of clubbing to death a visitor in their rural home were taken to a state mental institution today for confinement under a court order.

The order was entered in Clinton County court Wednesday by Judge A. H. Lipetz. It declared Mrs. Anna Maria Yost, 67, and Mrs. Ida Belle Holmes, 69, of Rauchtown, mentally incompetent to stand trial.

The two women were charged with the fatal beating of Orri M. (Mike) Shurr, 60, of McElhattan, at their home last April 25.

The court ruling climaxed an hour's hearing Wednesday on the mental competency of the defendants.

Judge Lipetz committed the two where they were taken today by women to Danville State Hospital. Sheriff John F. Boyle and Mrs. Boyle.

STOCKS BACK OFF

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market backed away slightly from its latest record high in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

The reaction was regarded as typical of the ebb and flow of market movements, analysts said. Steels, motors and rails were among the losers as trading simmered down well below Wednesday's rate of 6.68 million shares. Rubbers, some papers, tobaccos, utilities and selected chemicals showed plus signs.

Salesman Keyed Zealot Actions

JERUSALEM (AP)—A frail, bespectacled salesman says he masterminded Tuesday's demonstrations by Jewish religious zealots at Christian schools in Jerusalem, Jaffa and Haifa.

Dov Ben Zohar, 27, told a news conference he headed the "Circle of Activists" who organized the attacks that brought protests from Britain and France, and from Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol.

Zohar said he had no intent to demonstrate against Christian beliefs. He said the demonstrations were against "those who snatch our children from us with intent to convert them."

He told newsmen he suspected that all Christian schools which enroll Jewish children do so with the thought of winning them to Christianity. School officials denied this.

Demonstrations

The school board earlier warned that parents could be prosecuted for keeping children out of school. More than 1,000 white pupils boycotted West End High in Birmingham as two Negroes went to classes for the second day.

Wednesday night's rally for private schools was organized by West End white parents.

In most other desegregated schools, attendance was nearly normal and there was little disorder.

A rock smashed into a car carrying the two Negro pupils home from West End, breaking a window. But no one was hurt. The racial scene was generally peaceful at eight other desegregated schools in Birmingham, Mobile, Tuskegee and Huntsville.

With local authorities keeping tight control, the Army announced in Washington that only 675 Alabama National Guardsmen would be held on duty after midnight tonight.

President Kennedy federalized the entire 16,000-man Alabama force early Tuesday to prevent Gov. George C. Wallace from using guardsmen turn away Negroes at white schools.

Yankee Father Wants Son Out Of Alien Army

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.

(AP)—An American soldier's father, who lost one appeal to the President to get his son removed from the United Nations Command in Korea, may try to take his case to the U.S. Supreme Court, his attorney said today.

The father, Walter W. Cupples of Concord, N.H., petitioned President Kennedy last month to either remove his son, Robert W. Cupples, 17, from the U.N. Command or discharge him.

Lawyer Arthur J. J. Bohn, Fort Lauderdale, said he will talk with the elder Cupples about getting Gov. James W. King of New Hampshire interested in the youth's military status. This, Bohn said, could move the issue directly before the U.S. Supreme Court.

ALIEN ARMY

"The governor of New Hampshire will have to make a decision whether to be a party to a lawsuit," the lawyer said. "One of New Hampshire's citizens has been impressed into an alien army."

The final decision on the boy's status would affect thousands of American military personnel. Bohn asserted.

Cupples contended he had given permission for his son to enlist in the U.S. Army and not that of the United Nations. He called the act of placing young Cupples under U.N. control a breach of contract.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Capt. J. J. Knox Is Commended:

Officers of the U. S. Air Force outfit, with which Captain John J. Knox, a former York street physician, is stationed in North Africa have received letters of commendation from General Dwight D. Eisenhower for their work during the Sicilian campaign, it was learned today.A letter from Captain Knox to Mrs. Knox contained the letter of commendation sent to him, and stated that he and the other officers in his outfit had received the commendatory letters. Captain Knox's outfit was one of the first to take part in the Sicilian invasion during which Captain Knox gave medical attention to wounded soldiers while they were being transported by air to a base hospital.The letter to Mrs. Knox also states that Captain Knox was given a five-day leave after the battle during which he visited in Cairo, Egypt.Battlefield Cannon Given Coat Of Paint: The bright coats of paint battlefield cannon have received recently is a preliminary coat of red lead and will not be the permanent color of the 415 guns and six caissons that dot the battlefield, a National Park office spokesman said this morning. Other coats of paint will be applied and when the work is finished, wooden parts of the guns will be olive drab — their actual battle color — with metal parts painted black.The olive drab replaces the dark green color that has been used on the field for many years.Ask Beekeepers To Save Bees:
Besides providing a substitute for rationed sugar, Adams county's beekeepers may add another war service from the hives on their farms — protecting airplane motors from the action of sea water. According to E. J.
Anderson, bee specialist from Pennsylvania State college, "Because beeswax is finer and more impervious to water than para-fin, it is used to protect airplane motors against the action of sea water, to protect and lubricate shells, and for electric cables." Because more wax is needed than the bees can produce, he urged that old wax be salvaged by saving scraps, culling combs, killing the wax moth and collecting wax from hives which are no longer used.County's Largest Poultry Producer Has Flock Of 11,000 Laying Hens; Has Turkeys Too: If Roy H. Heckenluber had not undertaken a cow testing course he probably would not have become Adams county's largest poultry producer.Strange as it may seem, the upper coumian confesses that the cow testing work started him off on a career of poultry that in less than 10 years has enlarged until now 11,000 laying hens, and 5,000 turkeys roam the ranges of the two farms he owns near Arendts-ville.The chickens and turkeys keep his orchards in fertilizer and in addition he sells between 300 and 400 tons of manure a year to nearby farmers. Besides the chicken and turkeys there is not another animal on the place, with all of the heavy work being done by "jalopies" trucks, 14 of which are to be found on the two farms.
The "jalopies" are old passenger cars with the body cut off and replaced by a wooden, flat bottom chassis. The driver sits on a plow seat fastened on two two-by-fours.Besides the poultry, much of the farm is also devoted to fruit.
He has 18 acres of peach, 20 acres of apples and 10 of cherries on the farms.Because of the war-time difficulties of lack of feed and lack of labor Mr. Heckenluber is planning to continue his flocks

Today's Talk

SPIRIT

Perhaps the most vital of all latent, unseen elements that control this life of ours is the spirit within us.Charles Lamb, in speaking of an old acquaintance, said: "When he was young he wanted to be a tailor, but had not the spirit!"The world is bereft of thousands of useful, inspiring human beings, simply because they did not have the spirit to rise from their lethargy and make themselves known as factors in human progress, to say nothing of the personal joy that they each have missed.To break the spirit of anyone is a terrible tragedy, for spirit is what keeps one on the way. It is the invisible, voiceless, personal possession of the human heart, delicate, and heavenly built.
Arouse it in others, through kindly and hopeful words, and you have proved yourself a benefactor. Stimulate it within yourself by an ever hopeful attitude toward life, and you stir the best elements by which great deeds and useful service arrive.Be too proud of your heritage to allow anyone to break this spirit of yours!A noble, happy, helpful spirit is easily cultivated. It involves the free and willing acceptance of the many vicissitudes of life.
It involves calmness of mind and courage under unexpected circumstances.Spirit is akin to the soul. It has an element of the supernatural to it. It's a God gift that should remain inviolate in every human heart. All of us are born with its possibility of development. Business offices may have it. It is a ruling factor in schools and colleges — thank God! And it is this same spirit that makes a nation great.Neglect not the spirit that is within you! Call it to action.
Speed it into deeds. Make it a living, controlling force in all that you do.Tomorrow's subject: "Souls Or

MEDICAL TEAM SAVES VICTIM IN POLIO RACE

By AL SANDNER

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The airplane passenger was a frightened 26-year-old woman being kept alive by an iron lung. With 900 miles to go, the batteries for the lung were failing.It was the Sunday of Labor Day weekend and a University of Michigan medical team was flying patient Carol Kaufman from Mexico City to Ann Arbor in a twin-engine Beechcraft. News of the flight was revealed Wednesday."We had to do something fast, so we set down at Monroe, La.," said equipment engineer Gerald Horn. Only two batteries were left —one half dead and one in reserve for emergencies.

HAD NO IDEAS

"We didn't have any idea where we were going to find any people —much less batteries," Horn said."But then two young men working at the airport offered to trade us their car batteries. We got a third from a gas station owner in town. We were really wheeling and dealing there for a while, but we never thought to get their names.""It was close. By the time we completed the deal, we were already using the emergency battery."The tawny-haired, brown-eyed student of Spanish and Latin-American studies at Mexico City College was stricken with crippling polio last April.She could not be moved until the disease passed its critical stage and her breathing pattern stabilized, said Dr. David Dickinson, head of the medical school's polio rehabilitation center.Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Carl Kaufman of Chicago, was taken to Ann Arbor because it is the closest respirator center to Chicago.

GHS Opens BML Play With Bubblers Here On Friday; Mustangs At Littlestown

Three county scholastic football teams have home games scheduled this weekend while two others invade foreign territory as the gridiron tempo picks up.

Gettysburg and Boiling Springs meet here Friday evening at 8 o'clock while Littlestown is host to South Western at Littlestown at the same time. Delone Catholic will play at Lebanon Catholic to complete the Friday night card.

Bermudian Joint has a "home" game with Juniata Joint on the Biglerville High School field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and in the evening the Biglerville Cannons blast off the lid to their season by engaging Big Spring at Newville at 8 o'clock.

BUBBLERS AT GETTYSBURG

This game will mark the opening of the Blue Mountain League schedule and promises to be a hotly contested affair as both teams seek their initial victories after opening game setbacks.

The Warriors escaped injuries in the Westminster game and Coach Don Young will have his full squad available for the Bubblers.

During the week the prime objective has been the development of better play on the part of the defensive ends and Coach Young has been experimenting with a number of players at those spots. Carl Harvey, a 175-pound Junior, may draw one of the assignments. Stress has also been put on a sharper offense with every effort being made to develop faster and harder-hitting on the part of the backs.

The Warriors expect to perform much better this week. Their spirit was undampened by the loss to Westminster and they are gunning to make a real try for the BML title.

Richard Bouch, a new addition to the high school faculty, joined the coaching staff this week and will assist with the junior varsity. Boiling Springs, victoryless last year in a 10-game schedule, expects to do much better this season with 14 lettermen remaining, eight of whom are underclassmen.

Coach Al Wilson has switched Dick Clepper, center, to quarterback where he will team with Art Brandt, Larry Shenk and Dick Lebo for an all-veteran backfield. Anchoring the line will be Jim Tanner, 202, and Glenn Lightner, 187, transfer from Carlisle, at the tackle spots.

Last year the Warriors romped to an easy 46-0 victory at Boiling Springs but are certain to encounter much stiffer opposition Friday night.

SOUTH WESTERN AT LITTLESTOWN

Both of these teams were winners in their opening Laurel League games last weekend which should add to excitement when they clash on Memorial Field in the annual Thunderbolt Booster Night game.

Bill Heyser has been stressing air protection this week and feels that if he can stop the Mustangs' air attack the Bolts have an excellent chance for another triumph.

Bob Smith, who starts on the offense at center, may miss the game due to an arm injury. Gary Wintrow will probably replace Smith. Offsetting this is the return of Donnie Bair, halfback, to action and he will spell Louie Orndorff at that spot during the game.

Improved backfield ball handling drew the attention of the Bolt staff during the week and better all-around defensive work has been sought.

South Western is spearheaded by seven lettermen including John Gobrecht and Bill Brown, backs, and Don Lawrence, Gary Davis, Craig Goodermuth, John Markle and Mike Wildasin, linemen.

Last week Littlestown upset York Suburban 14-13 while South Western was impressive in a 19-12 verdict over Kennard-Dale.

Other league games this week include: Friday, West York at Spring Grove; Saturday, Dallastown at Central and Susquehanna at Kennard-Dale.

JUNIATA JT. VS. BERMUDEAN

Problems continue to mount for Coach Tom Shreiner and his Bermudian Springs football squad as they prime for their engagement with Juniata Joint on the Biglerville High School field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Already short on manpower, the Eagles have lost Joe Lemmon, 215-pound Sophomore tackle, for the coming game. Lemmon has injured a hand and will miss the game. At the present there are but 20 on the varsity squad which rules out full-scale scrimmage.

Shreiner has indicated he will start the same outfit against the Indians that finished against Northern last Saturday. It will include: Ends, Bill Hinkle and Bob Lancaster; tackles, Paul Middour and Wayne Wise; guards, Don Fair and Tom Harbold or Dan Corman; center, Al Hoke; quarterback, Larry Bobb; halfbacks, Todd Tanger and Jim Harbold, and fullback, Reed McCauslin.

The Eagles and Indians will both be gunning for their initial victories after opening game setbacks. Bermudian bowed to Northern 42-0 while Juniata was a 32-6 victim of Selinsgrove.

BIGLERVILLE AT BIG SPRING
Jack Emanuel's Cannons run into one of the top-rated Blue Mountain League teams when it opens against Big Spring at Newville Saturday evening.

Nine lettermen on the Biglerville squad are expected to be in the opening lineup. The backfield will probably include Mike Kane, 160, quarterback; Jeff Horick, 165, and Richie Fair, 135, or Terry Taylor, 175, halfbacks; Bob Thompson, 180, fullback.

Up front there will be Bob Bream, 160, and Rodney Guise, 160, ends; Mike Thompson, 215, and Bill Gardner, 225, or Don Linard, 175, tackles; Don Heckman, 160, and Melvin Mentzer, 155, guards, and Charles Hess, 173, center.

Coach Emanuel has been fairly well pleased with the progress of his squad and reports all are in good physical condition.

Big Spring is regarded as one of the outstanding challengers to East Pennsboro, defending titlist, in the coming race. The team is well loaded with veterans, foremost of whom is Bob Drawbaugh, halfback, who has recovered from an injury and will oppose the Cannons.

With a strong first team unit, Big Spring's problem is in depth and much depends on the underclassmen. Pete Naugle, an outstanding guard, has been lost for the season due to an injury. He suffered a concussion last year and has been advised to drop football. Harry Myers, 205, another fine guard, will be ready for action after suffering an injury in preseason practice.

DELONE AT LEBANON CATHOLIC
After their fine opening game start with a 7-0 win over favored Hanover, the Delone Squires must guard against overconfidence when they tangle with Lebanon Catholic on the latter's field Friday night.

Coach Buckley Kempton was justifiably pleased with his squad's performance against the Night-hawks and will make no changes in his starting array since all are in good physical condition. Particularly pleasing last week was the work of George Emig, Sophomore, who directed the post.

Lebanon Catholic, beaten last week 20-7 by Cornwall, has a heavy squad and two outstanding veteran backs in Alwine, quarterback, and Feeser, halfback.

FAVORS COLTS OVER GIANTS IN SUNDAY CLASH

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Coach Allie Sherman stoutly maintains that his New York Giants are sound, in fact, "we might have the best team in the last three years."

But the coach of the defending Eastern Division champions in the National Football League made a move that indicates he's far from overloaded in talent going into the weekend opener against Baltimore.

Sherman, whose Giants won just two of five exhibition games, dropped Jim Pace, a halfback, from the roster Wednesday. That put the Giants one man under the 37-player roster limit.

COLTS FAVORED

"It will give us a little room to pick up a player elsewhere if we desire," Sherman explained.

Baltimore, which lost only once in five exhibitions—and that with Johnny Unitas out of action—is a slight favorite. Unitas sat out the final exhibition with a sore shoulder but is reported ready for full time action against the Giants.

The Green Bay Packers, defending league champions, are reported at full strength for their opener against the Chicago Bears. They bolstered their defensive secondary Wednesday with the acquisition of halfback Jerry Norton from Dallas. The Bears also are expected to be at full strength.

HAS INJURED ARM

There is some doubt about San Francisco's troubled 49ers, however. John Brodie, their No. 1 quarterback, has an injured throwing arm and his status is undetermined for the opener against ambitious Minnesota.

The season opens with two Saturday night games, St. Louis at Dallas and Detroit at Los Angeles.

Sunday, New York is at Baltimore, Washington at Cleveland, Minnesota at San Francisco and Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.

The American Football League, in its second week or regular season play, has Boston at San Diego and Denver at Houston in Saturday night games and Buffalo at Oakland Sunday.

Three More Lost To Bullet Squad

The Gettysburg College football roster has been arrowed to 34 men with three more drops from the squad. The Bullets open at Buffalo on Saturday.

Steve Gotwals, a 6'3", 190-pound Junior end from Chambersburg, and Bill Lake, a 6'2", 240-pound center from York, will be unable to compete for the rest of the year.

Gotwals suffered a recurrence of a shoulder injury while Lake suffered a head injury which was initially sustained in spring practice. Lake was one of two lettermen centers. Sophomore halfback Carl Hepler, Springdale, regarded as a promising defensive back, decided to call it quits.

Due to the added losses, Coach Gene Haas has been forced to make several changes in his original lineup. Al Hallam, Nutley, N.J.; Barry Gruber, Harrisburg, and Ken Snyder, Hershey, will move into end positions from their halfback slots and Dave Wehr will alternate between end and tackle.

Will Broadcast Littlestown Game

WGCT will broadcast the Littlestown-South Western High School football game Friday night from Memorial Field in Littlestown.

Friday's contest is the first of four Littlestown contests slated for broadcast.

HOUCK HELPED YANKEES WIN BY JUNE TALK

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The St. Louis Cardinals' Ray Sadecki and Ron Taylor combined for a five-hit, 4-0 job against the Chicago Cubs Wednesday night that kept second-place St. Louis three games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers with their third straight shutout.

The win extended the Cardinals' streak to five games while producing the 14th victory in the last 15 games.

While the Cardinals kept up the pressure, Maury Wills applied some for the Dodgers against Pittsburgh, stroking four hits, starting three rallies and driving in two runs as Los Angeles maintained its grip on the top spot by belting the Pirates 9-4.

LAYS DOWN LAW

The next day Houk called a meeting. A member of the Yankee family revealed what took place at this closed door session.

"This scared talk has got to stop," Houk was quoted as saying. "I am as concerned about Mantle's injury as much as any of you but I say we're strong enough to win without him."

"No one appreciates more than I do what Mickey means to us but this is not a one-man team. Every one of you is a vital part of this club. Mickey's absence merely gives you a chance to prove it."

BETTER THAN OTHERS

"I don't say it will be easy—no club can lose a Mantle and not feel it—but we're a heck of a lot better than any of the other clubs even without him."

The Yankee manager went down the line, addressing each player individually, pitting each against his counterpart on the Yankees' chief rivals.

"You're all the best at your positions," Houk flatly concluded. For several seconds there was no answer. Then the quiet was broken by left-hander Whitey Ford.

"Let's go, guys," he shouted. "What are we waiting for? We've got work to do."

That was the answer Houk wanted. The Yankees, with Ford pitching, whipped Detroit that night and went on to win 10 of their next 11.

Long Fly Balls Knot Coast Play

SPOKANE (AP)—Third baseman John Werhas lofted a pair of long fly ball to center field Wednesday night to give the Spokane Indians a 3-2 edge over the Oklahoma City 89ers.

The decision evened up the best-of-seven series for the Pacific Coast League baseball championship at one game each.

Werhas brought home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth with a blast that arched 370 feet and fell to the ground while the helpless 89ers looked on. They saved them elves the trouble of trying to catch it because with the bases loaded and only one out the run would have scored anyhow.

Crackers Home For Governors' Cup

ATLANTA (AP)—The International League Governors' Cup series moves here tonight with the Indianapolis Indians holding a 2-1 lead over the Atlanta Crackers in the best-of-seven playoff.

Atlanta edged the Indians 5-4 at Indianapolis Wednesday night after holding a 5-1 lead in the ninth inning. Phil Gagliano saved the game for the Crackers with a brilliant play.

Indianapolis sends Frank Freuter against Atlanta's Johnny Kucks tonight.

ENTER GOLF TOURNEY

Bob Davies and Dr. G. Donald Wickerham of the Gettysburg Country Club will take part in the second annual Mason-Dixon amateur golf tournament on the South Hills course, near Hanover, Sunday. A total of 99 teams has entered for the 18-hole better-ball of two partners competition.

Cards Shut Out Chicago But Dodgers Beat Bucs To Hold 3-Game Margin

REDS THUMP BRAVES

In other NL action, Vada Pinson collected two homers, including his 1,000th major league hit, and Gordy Coleman hit a grand slam in Cincinnati's 14-3 thumping of Milwaukee, Houston's Dick Farrell four-hit Philadelphia 4-2 and the New York Mets defeated San Francisco 4-2.

Sadecki, 9-8, started against Cub ace Dick Ellsworth, 20-9, allowing only four hits in 5 2/3 innings, but was bothered by periodic wildness and Manager Johnny Keane decided to bring in Taylor. Taylor allowed only a single the rest of the way.

Perry, released Wednesday by the Baltimore Colt, has signed with San Francisco as a "taxi" member.

"Taxi" is a genus of "red-shirt alumni," who do not hold regular spots on the roster, but who are brought up in case of injury to a regular player.

MAGIC NUMBER FOR YANKS IS THREE; BEAT A'S

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees are openly favoring the Los Angeles Dodgers for the National League flag in the battle with the St. Louis Cardinals.

They figure a World Series with the Dodgers will be worth some $6,000 a man more than one with the Cardinals. The arithmetic is simple. There are some 55,000 seats in O'Malley's house in Los Angeles, and all within naked eye distance of home plate are called boxes, at $12 a copy. St. Louis has only 30,600 seats, few in the $12 class.

The Yankees moved a step closer to their own annual American League pennant-clinching party by whipping the Kansas City Athletics 8-2 Wednesday night.

Mickey Mantle smacked a three-run homer in the first inning and added a single and double. Whitey Ford won his 22nd game. Joe Pepitone also hit a two-run homer.

TWINS WIN AGAIN

The second-place Minnesota Twins also won, 9-3, over Cleveland.

That left the magic number at three.

In other AL action, the Chicago White Sox edged Baltimore 3-2, Washington trimmed Detroit 6-5 in 10 innings and Aubrey Gatewood pitched a four-hitter in his major league debut as the Los Angeles Angels defeated Boston 4-1.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 38th homer — a grand slammer — and Earl Battey his 25th homer as Minnesota stayed one-half game ahead of the White Sox in their battle for second place.

FISHER WINS 8TH

Eddie Fisher went the distance for the White Sox against Baltimore, winning his eighth with a three hitter. Dave Nicholson homered for the Sox. Camilo Carreon also homered.

Dick Phillips led off the 10th inning with his 10th homer for the Washington victory. Dick McAuliffe homered for the Tigers.

Gatewood, 25, a right-hander just up from Memphis, lost his shutout bid in the ninth when Dick Stuart tripled and scored on Russ Nixon's sacrifice fly.

GIVEN TROPHIES

Members of the Gettysburg All Stars, who won the county Little League title, were given small individual trophies. Included in the group were Richard Shetter, Bud Johnson, Greg Redding, Dave James, Jimmy Flynn, Brad Stahl, Terry Bowling, Ron Kuykendall, Carl Swinn, Larry Wishard, Bob Smith, Randy Phil, Dave White, Larry Wickerham and John Meinhardt. They also were given large pictures of the squad. Paul Toddes, Artie Phil and Don White, who coached the All Stars, were also recipients of pictures.

Nonmetallic Metal Created By Chemist Has Space Use

By GORDON R. PETERSON
The Associated Press

TUCSON, Ariz.—When man goes to the moon, he may do it wrapped in nonmetallic metal.

And that same paradoxical-sounding substance may enable him to reenter the atmosphere without burning up on the return trip.

The new material is the creation of Dr. Carl S. Marvel, a University of Arizona researcher and nationally known chemist.

The substance, technically called "polybenzimidazole," is a synthetic combination of carbon, hydrogen and nitrogen.

NAME HAS STUCK

Although Dr. Marvel said the material is not a metal in any sense of the word, "someone hung that name (nonmetallic metal) on it, and it's stuck."

Its advantages over other materials: it can withstand temperatures higher than 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit under space conditions, higher than any other plastic type material and most metals, is stronger than steel; and is lightweight.

Dr. Marvel says some other materials, such as graphite, can withstand higher temperatures but are nearly impossible to work with structurally.

OTHERS HEAVIER

Metals such as steel or aluminum, or even the extremely lightweight beryllium, are much heavier than the new material.

The combination could prove the key to protecting space flight equipment from extremes of temperature and other damaging forces without the necessity of using heavy metal alloys.

Eventually, the material could find its way into anything from protective clothing for firemen or steel-mill workers to race car tires or ironing board covers.

CONSIDERED USES

Presently considered uses include protective coatings for rockets, space capsules, missiles, radar antenna, and perhaps supersonic jet aircraft.

A California firm, Telecomputing Corp. of Los Angeles, also plans to make available a type of glue composed of Dr. Marvel's substance.

Using the trade name "Imidite," the material is to come in paste, liquid and other forms.

STRUCTURAL USE

This material then may be used for joining structural parts of space and defense equipment, where even welding might not hold.

Narmco Research and Development in San Diego, a division of Telecomputing, created the glue form of the material under a research grant from the U. S. Air Force.

Narmco reported that when two pieces of stainless steel were glued together with the new synthetic, and then pulled apart, it often was the steel rather than the glue which came apart.

This could mean faster, more efficient, more economical, and, above all, safer assembly of aircraft and spacecraft than can be accomplished with present methods.

At the moment, Dr. Marvel says, nobody knows how much the material will cost to manufacture.

"It has never been made in sufficient quantity to determine a price," he said, but added that price would probably be a minor factor if the substance lives up to expectations and hopes.

UNDER PRESSURE

Currently, the glue must be applied under a pressure of 200 pounds per square inch, in a temperature ranging up to 600 degrees Fahrenheit.

While this limits its uses to situations where the pressure and heat can be applied, further work could eventually remove that obstacle.

If application is simplified and the glue proves economical, you may someday be able to glue the fenders back on your car after the little woman takes a drive.

PATCH SPACECRAFT

On a higher plane, future space-men may simply glue patches across holes if meteors penetrate the skin of a spacecraft.

The possibility of uses for both the structural material and the adhesive form extends nearly as far in the opposite direction: it could mean increased safety for submarines, and possibly enable scientists to bore toward the center of what they believe to be the boiling-metal-hot core of the earth.

Dr. Marvel began his research while at the University of Illinois.

He said he was actually looking for a heat-stable rubber, but switched his tactics to make a heat-stable plastic instead.

Dr. Marvel held out little hope of ever making any money on his creation. He said the University of Illinois Foundation has applied for a patent and would own the material if the patent is granted, because that's where he was when he got the idea.

And, because some of the work was done under a National Science Foundation grant, he said, the government would have royalty-free rights.

"But, scientifically," he said, "I think it is a good discovery. I'm proud of it."

So, with little or no monetary profit in sight, Dr. Marvel is taking the approach of a true researcher.

He's working on a new marvel material—even stronger, lighter and more heat-resistant—capable of performing tasks man may not even have dreamed of yet.

FORD HEIRESS PIONEERS PLAN FOR JUVENILES

NEW YORK (AP)—Very soon rich and beautiful Charlotte Ford will be the hub of some social events strikingly different from the costly debut with which her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford II, launched her into Detroit society four years ago.

At one event the guests will be 200 truculent teen-age gang leaders who will presumably park their switch blades and zip guns before sitting down in temporary truce to a lavish dinner and a program calculated to change the attitudes of at least a few.

Also on the social calendar this summer is a party series. These will be held on garbage-strewn blocked-off streets in decaying neighborhoods where, the guests, ragged, hollow-eyed and darkly curious, will drain from the noisy tenements to music and gaiety sorely missing in their lives.

In the course of her new job as chairman of Youth Activities Committee for the National Society for the Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency, Charlotte may also arrange to play host to these deprived youngsters by bringing them to her side of the tracks.

"It might give them incentive," speculates Henry Ford's intense and conscientious granddaughter.

"Everybody is so interested in getting US to go up there to see how those poor people live," and in emphasizing the word "us" she embodies all the well-born daughters with social consciences.

"But I think it is just as important that the children should come to our places, to our homes. I think we should take them to movies, and nice restaurants, and stores."

Candid Charlotte, though forearmed with a seldom-referred-to sheet of questions most likely to be asked of her during her first interview, makes no pretense of any being knowledgeable about delinquency. "But she's doing her homework," offers John R. Winter, the society's executive director.

A mere four years away from her teens, Charlotte's primary qualification for her task is youth itself, and the ability to identify with, and understand youth. Teen-agers are likely to slough off adult advice as being from the stone ages, she says.

"I know that my brother would listen to me or my sister Ann at times when he wouldn't listen to my mother."

The young lady likes to work with young children. "I used to baby-sit for friends." Indeed, she likes to work with all people of all ages.

Born into a cosseted world, educated at chichi schools and further refined during a year abroad, the ash blonde with frosted streaks in her hair was a volunteer at a Southampton hospital. "Mostly changing flowers for patients and things like that," when Winter interested her in the society to prevent delinquency.

It is against her family's principles merely to lend her influential name to charity (as is frequently done) without actually working for it personally. So Charlotte went home to Michigan and talked things over with her parents before accepting the new responsibility.

During the three middle days of each week she is employed by a decorating firm. "But they are very good about letting me off when it is necessary."

It will probably be necessary a great deal because the National Society has an ambitious two-pronged program. One serves as an information clearing house to news media, collecting and disseminating all existing material regarding juvenile problems.

The other is an attempt to correct the situation through youth centers, beauty and modeling clinics for girls, and athletic competitions conducted by sports heroes. That's Charlotte's area.

"Your grandfather is partly responsible for this juvenile delinquency problem because he made it easier to have automobiles," chides his camera. Charlotte smiles indulgently, obviously used to a lifetime of references to the doughy industrial giant.

BLOOM ACTS TO EXPEDITE CHARITY LAW

HARRISBURG (AP)—Preliminary work is under way to administer a new law aimed at making sure that most of the money you donate to charity is used for the intended purpose.

George I. Bloom, secretary of the commonwealth, said Wednesday will confer next week with Gov. Scranton about the selection of three public members of a seven-member commission which will administer the program.

The 1963 legislature, after several unsuccessful efforts, enacted a new law to control charitable fund-raising, junking a 1923 act that had grown ineffective through repeated amendments.

EFFECTIVE IN NOV.

The new act, which grants total exemptions from its restrictive provisions only to bona fide religious groups, goes into effect Nov. 6.

Bloom, who by law will be chairman of the commission, said a draft of proposed rules and regulations will be presented to the commission after its organization.

Other members will be the secretaries of health and public welfare and the attorney general, or their representatives.

CONTROL TO STATE

The act will give control over fund solicitations to the state by requiring most charitable organizations to register or to apply for exempt status and by directing all but a few groups to disclose how much they collect and how the money is used.

Exempt from the registration provisions are recognized educational institutions, persons collecting funds for the emergency relief of individuals such as neighbors raising money and other items for victims of fire or other disasters, charitable organizations collecting less than $2,000 a year, nonprofit and charitable hospitals, veterans groups, volunteer fire, ambulance or rescue associations, and their auxiliaries. However, these organizations must request exempt status from the commission.

$10 FILING FEE

In the case of educational institutions and hospitals, duplicate copies of their annual financial reports must be filed with the commission.

No registration fee is required of any exempt organization.

Other charitable groups seeking to collect funds must register with the commission, with a $10 filing fee, and state the purpose of the drive and the amount to be collected.

One law strictly limits any solicitation of funds from the public to drives for charitable purposes.

Professional fund-raising counselors may enter into flat fee agreements with charitable organizations to manage fund drives but professional solicitors are limited to fees of no more than 15 per cent of the total amount realized, including all expenses.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Professional fund-raising counselors must register with the commission. The fee is $50 and they must post surety bond of $10,000.

Copies of contracts between charitable organizations and the professional fund-raisers must be submitted to the commission.

The act makes it illegal for professional fund raisers to claim that their registration with the state is in any way of endorsement by the commonwealth.

First offense violations of the act are subject to fines of $100 to $500 and/or six-month imprisonment. The penalties are doubled for second and subsequent offenses.

Alcoa Negotiates For Real Estate

NEW YORK (AP)—Aluminum Co. of America (Alcoa) is negotiating with Second Covent Garden Property Co., a British firm, for the purchase of Second Covent real estate holdings in New York, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh.

Alcoa said Wednesday it was seeking interests in four apartment developments.

To handle its growing real estate commitments, Alcoa has set up Alcoa Properties, Inc.

Reynolds Metals Co., second only to Alcoa in aluminum production, is also a heavy investor in real estate.

Alcoa's latest move was seen by some as another step in a trend by producers of primary materials to move into real estate in order to invest capital and to display their products.

Goldwater Raps New Frontier

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., says that "not one of our problems has been solved by the new frontier."

In a speech Wednesday night to the National Federation of Republican Women, opening a three-day silver anniversary meeting in Chicago, Goldwater attacked the Kennedy administration on all fronts.

"If the new frontier has a purpose, it is to expand the federal government to the point where it can regulate, not govern, the individual lives of all Americans," Goldwater said.

"A daddy knows best" attitude has been adopted by the Kennedy administration, the senator said.

"And 'daddy' is getting tougher all the time. He's beginning to think that he can legislate away any and all problems that arise on the American scene."

Population of Brazil averages about 12.65 persons per square mile.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

ISAIAH

(This is the first of four drawings of the greater prophets)

Isaiah grew up in a prosperous Judah, where luxuries were plentiful. Religion flourished and the temples were filled, but the people gave only lip service, and with wealth came oppression. Injustice and violence were rampant.

In the display of vanity, military might, and material things, the people had forgotten their dependency on God. This young, aristocratic Isaiah could not overlook. The sins and false pride of his countrymen weighed heavily on him.

Isaiah's call to prophesy came in the temple while he was deep in thought. He relates, "...I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up and his train filled the temple... Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, here am I; send me."

Thus began Isaiah's ministry of 40 years or more. His faith led him to prophesy God's judgment on the people he loved, his fellow countrymen. Isaiah saw two ways the people could avert the Lord's judgment. He wrote, "In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength..."

FUEL STUDIES MADE BY GSA

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority has ordered the study of requests to substitute other heating fuels for coal in four projects.

The projects are at Parker Dam State Park, Clearfield County; Promised Land State Park, Pike County; Cornwall Furnace Museum, Lebanon County, and 28th Division Shrine at Boalsburg, Centre County.

It was the first two projects that aroused a discussion at the GSA executive board meeting Wednesday over the authority's general policy of using coal as a heating source.

The first called for the construction of a $25,000 caretaker's home at Parker State Dam Park. Bids received last June exceeded the allocation by $8,434 and the project is being redesigned.

A. J. Caruso, executive director of the GSA, said one suggestion to reduce the cost of construction was to use oil in place of coal. Auditor General Thomas Z. Minehart objected to permitting the substitution until the project is completed.

The executive board agreed to defer action until that time.

Husband Shoots Wife In Quarrel

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—What began as a reconciliation attempt ended in death for a Philadelphia couple separated for the past year.

Police said Calvin Erwin, 42, a baking company employee, shot his wife, Blanche, 40, and then turned the gun on himself Wednesday. The couple's three children, Dolores, 22, Bedford, 17, and Patricia, 16, were in Mrs. Erwin's home when Erwin arrived. They told police the attempted reconciliation soon turned into a violent argument.

POLL FAVORS TATE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democratic Mayor James H. J. Tate has refused to comment on an alleged public opinion poll which reportedly showed him holding a 55-45 per cent lead over the Republican candidate in the Nov. 5 election.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says Tate has an opinion poll which shows him holding a decided edge over James T. McDermott in their campaign.

Luzerne Youngster Is Polio Victim

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Michael Martin, 2, of Wanamie, Luzerne County, has been stricken with paralytic polio. He is a patient in Mercy Hospital, where his condition was reported as good.

Dr. Richard Potter, representative of the State Health Bureau, confirmed Wednesday night that a case of polio had been reported to him. He said that he could make no further comment.

The child is reportedly having trouble lifting his legs.

News of the presence of a polio case in the Wyoming Valley area came a few days before the stop polio campaign of the Luzerne County Medical Society.

The Medical Society hopes to bring to 57 vaccine clinics throughout the area the major portion of the 346,000 men, women and children in Luzerne County.

New Trial For Miss Reis Delayed

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The retrial of Lillian Reis, Philadelphia nightclub owner implicated in the $378,000 burglary of a coal baron's home, has been postponed until November.

Schuylkill County Dist. Atty. Harry W. Lightstone said Wednesday the county court's delay in reaching a decision on Miss Reis' motion to suppress certain evidence pertaining to her arrest caused the rescheduling of the trial.

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Veteran defenseman Larry Zeidel and winger Ray Kinasevich have been sold by the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League.

The club reported on Wednesday it also had purchased the contract of wingman Bruce Cline from the Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League.

Purchase prices were not disclosed.

Zeidel, 35, was one of the Bears' most popular players in eight years here. He was sold to Seattle of the Western League.

Kinasevich, 30, who spent last season with Edmonton, was sold to the Canadiens who assigned him to Cleveland in the AHL.

Cline, 29, spent all of last season with Springfield, placing second in the AHL with 39 goals.

Chicago Passes Race Realty Bill

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago City Council has adopted an ordinance forbidding racial or religious discrimination by real estate brokers in the sale of property despite a massive protest by white property owners.

The bill was passed by the City Council Wednesday, a few hours after 4,000 white property owners marched on City Hall in protest.

The vote was 30-16 as the usually solid Democratic majority in the council was split.

Some aldermen denounced the bill as "watered down"; others as a blow to property rights.

One of the chief opponents of the measure was the Chicago Real Estate Board. Its president, Percy E. Wagner, vowed the ordinance will be tested in the courts.

Saigon's First Lady Chides Kennedy And Pope Paul Over Reaction To Demonstrations

By BORIS BOSKOVIC
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu says President Kennedy "is misinformed about the situation in Viet Nam and the solution should be to get better information."

"He is a politician and when he hears loud opposition he tries to appease it somehow," the petite, powerful first lady of South Viet Nam said on her arrival in Belgrade Wednesday.

That was her reaction when reporters asked her to comment on the concern voiced by Kennedy about the Buddhist situation in South Viet Nam.

CHIDES POPE

Mrs. Nhu, 36, sister-in-law of President Ngo Dinh Diem, also had a few words for Pope Paul VI. He also has expressed concern for the plight of the Buddhists. The South Vietnamese government has used strongarm methods in stamping out Buddhist demonstrations for more religious freedom.

She said the pontiff, although not misinformed, "gets easily worried."

Diem, Mrs. Nhu and her husband, the president's younger brother and close adviser, are Catholics. Mrs. Nhu is the official hostess for the bachelor president.

PERSONNEL CHANGES

In recent television interviews, Kennedy suggested that certain personnel changes in the Diem government may be advisable to help solve the Buddhist crisis.

Mrs. Nhu declined to comment immediately on Kennedy's suggestion for personnel changes.

"We will wait for more details of the statement," she said. "If we can satisfy him, we will do so."

HEADS DELEGATION

Mrs. Nhu is head of South Viet Nam's delegation to the 52nd session of the Interparliamentary Union which opened an eight-day meeting today. She plans to address the conference on what she described as the true picture of the situation in South Viet Nam.

Fifty-nine countries, including the United States, are attending the conference, which will discuss issues relating to racial discrimination, space law, peace and international cooperation. The U. S. delegation, includes Democratic Senators Mike Mansfield of Montana and Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the President's brother.

SULKY TRAINER AMAZES TRADE AT ROOSEVELT

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — It was morning at Roosevelt Raceway's training track and 20 harness horses were clippity-clopping around the half-mile oval.

One man, wearing beige jodhpurs, chamois jacket, goggles and a golf cap, seemed busier than the rest. Numerous trainers watched as Billy Haughton, a stopwatch face up in his left hand, hopped from one sulky seat to another for the better part of three hours. They were admiring the man as much as they admired his stock.

After an assistant warmed up a horse, this Mr. Amazing of the harness racing world would take over for a one-mile spin. Billy Haughton did this 24 times as eight horses of his 100-odd public stable made three appearances on the grounds where night trotting began. He even took phone calls and when noon rolled around he had yet to draw a deep breath.

NORMAL MORNING

This was a normal morning for the man with a $1 million-plus operation who this summer is being seen in green, white and gold silks in stakes races at Roosevelt, Philadelphia, Washington, Wilmington, Buffalo, Boston, Detroit, Chicago, Meadows, Pa., and Baltimore.

William Robert Haughton has 53 horses stabled here under the care of assistants Irving Roberts and Rudy Robinet. He hardly ever leads the drivers in victories at one track because in one month he can be seen at five different raceways. For the last three years the Haughton Stable has earned more than $1 million in purses, because the 39-year-old trainer-driver goes where the stakes are.

"I don't really know how many owners I'm working for," Haughton began. "You'll have to call Mrs. Thomas, our bookkeeper."

103 IN TRAINING

The local call was made and Mrs. Billy Thomas counted 103 horses in training for 40 factions at five tracks under 60-odd employees.

Her husband, Al (Apple) Thomas, Haughton's top assistant, had a string and aide Jim Siver at Brandywine in Wilmington; Joe Green had some horses at Buffalo. Bill Vaughn had a few at Monticello, N. Y., and Frank Chesbro was at Goshen.

Guess you'll nap later today, Haughton was asked. "I don't even know what a nap is," Billy replied with a smile. "I'll be on the phone most of the day."

Just then the phone rang and Billy apologized for not calling an owner back the previous Sunday.

"It was 10:30 in the morning when I got back (to nearby Brookville) and by the time I finished playing with the children (there are four boys and a girl between 10 and 20) the day was over," Haughton told the owner.

LOVES WORK

Retire or ease up? "I've never thought about it. I'll keep right on going. I love it. I've enjoyed it ever since I won my first race with Hollywood

Army Maj. Latham H. Brown (right), whose wife, Virginia, lives in York Springs, receives congratulations and a certificate of achievement from Col. F. A. Chamblin, commandant of the finance school, while serving at the school at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. Maj. Brown received the award for his outstanding performance of duties as an instructor at the school. The 38-year-old officer, son of Mrs. Bertha N. Brown, Fayette, Miss., was graduated from Fayette High School in 1943 and from Mississippi State College, State College, in 1949. (U.S. Army photo)

Latimer at the 1942 Fonda, N. Y. Fair. I was just grooming then. When Saratoga opened I went there and had three or four winners.

"In 1943, with the war on, I drove only three races and won one. I got wrecked in 1945 at Saratoga. A horse fell on top of me and cracked my sacroiliac. I continued to drive. I only found out two years later when a doctor I trained for took X-rays. The back kept me out of the Army. It pops in and out but hasn't bothered me much in the last two years.

"I've had a lot of thrills. The first Messenger Stake here in 1956 was something. I won a heat with Belle Acton and another with Bachelor Hanover. Then in the raceoff I put Stanley Dancer on Bachelor Hanover and beat him. There was a consolation race the same night, for ones that didn't qualify. I won that too, with Spears Hanover."

NATION'S WINNER

Between 1952 and 1959, Haughton led all drivers in money won and for six straight years (1953-58) he led the nation in victories. Last year his best trotter, Duke Rodney, owned by Pat DiGennaro of Rochester, earned $206,113.

"I've always loved horses," says Haughton. "I wanted to be a jockey but was too heavy. I'm 158 now. When I was 14 I worked around horses for $7 a week. Last winter at Orlando where I spent four months getting our horses ready, I galloped one of the four thoroughbreds my wife (Dorothy) and I owned. She was Snow Ballet, but we lost her in a $5,000 claiming race.

"Eddie Neely trains for us and in the first three months at Aqueduct we had eight seconds and two winners. We claimed Stout Fellow for $8,000 and he came up lame but my wife doctored him and he came around. Oh, she just massaged his legs. The horses run in my wife's name but what's mine is hers and what's hers is

CRITIC HAILS MAGIC CARPET OF CBS SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Sometimes numbed perhaps by over-doses of cliché comedy and trivial plots galloping to a predictable climax, we forget that television can be pure enchantment.

Wednesday night, in premier broadcast of a new CBS series, the Roots of Freedom, the television became a magic carpet, flying us through time and space back 2,400 years to a Greek hillside where the theater was born.

With Alfred Lunt as guide and entertaining lecturer and Lynn Fontanne helping out, the living audiences were actually seated in the ruins of the theater of Dionysus. There on the old broken stones, a cast of talented performers, including Miss Fontanne, Alfred Drake and Donald Madden, enacted short scenes from great plays which were milestones in theater development.

AN ABSORBING HOUR

First, to illustrate the very earliest Greek theme — man against the gods — there was a portion from Aeschylus' "Prometheus Bound." Sophocles' "Antigone" came next to show a more sophisticated concern for man's struggle against man. And finally, after Miss Fontanne had admonished parents to ship the children off to bed came a morally risque comedy scene from Aristophanes' "Lysistrata," obviously the father of all bedroom farce.

It was an absorbing adult hour and proved incidentally that an educational program doesn't have to be dull.

Warehouses Are Damaged By Blaze

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (AP) — A cluster of warehouses in the west end of Huntingdon were extensively damaged by fire Wednesday.

David Glosser, owner of the one-story concrete block and brick buildings, estimated his loss at $250,000.

Two companies, which had considerable quantities of raw materials and finished products stored in the six structures, said they would be unable to estimate their loss pending inventories.

"Whiz Kids" At Pentagon Get Their Share Of Rebuffs From Secretary Of Defense

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many military professionals smart under what they consider an excessive influence of civilian "whiz-kid" officials at the Pentagon. But these civilians, too, have met frustrations.

"The fact is, this is a one-man show," said one informed authority who rates himself neutral in the military-vs.-civilian feud. "It's run by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara — he makes up his own mind and makes the decisions."

NOT WIDELY KNOWN

Like some military leaders, the civilian operations analysts, theoreticians and experts are known to have chafed because McNamara would not go along with certain of their ideas.

But while rebuffs suffered by the services often come into the open, the thwarting of some of the pet proposals of the "whiz kids" generally is known only to the inner circle of defense leaders.

It is reliably reported, for example, that some of the civilian thinkers some time ago advanced the idea of withdrawing all nuclear battlefield weapons from Western Europe to reduce the hazard of accidental atomic exchange.

SERVANTS, NOT MASTERS

According to knowledgeable sources, the Joint Chiefs of Staff warned that such a move could mean the end of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The proposal got no further.

Many of these men, mostly unknown to the general public, carry Ph.D. degrees and other academic laurels. A number of them are relatively young—hence the term "whiz kids"—appealed to them by critics and admirers alike.

Many officers feel strongly there is a place for the civilian "brain" who analyzes the defense problems scientifically and mathematically — but they believe such analysts should be servants, rather than masters, of the seasoned military professionals.

DABBLE IN STRATEGY

Their gripe is that the analysts who have achieved stature under McNamara dabble in military strategy and weapons questions which, the military professionals contend, they lack the experience and competence to handle.

There is no doubt that McNamara — a "facts and figures man"—gave the analysts greater prominence than they ever had enjoyed before in the defense set-up.

But associates of the secretary insist he does not buy what the analysts sell without weighing their arguments against those of the military, and that the military positions do not get short shrift.

NOT DUE CONSIDERATION

The art of operations analysts has become more sophisticated with the advent of improved computers and other advanced tools.

SIFT RUINS FOR BLAZE ORIGIN

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP)—The charred ruins of the Asbury Pavilion were being sifted today for clues to the cause of the city's second million-dollar boardwalk fire of the summer.

At the same time, the city had its eyes toward Washington for federal help to rebuild the destroyed Asbury Pavilion and the Sunset Pavilion, six blocks to the north, which burned down Aug. 6.

Wednesday's fire was called almost identical with the Aug. 6 blaze. Fire Chief Michael De Sarno said an investigation was proceeding to determine the effect on the fire of a four-inch gas line suspended under the boardwalk.

The suspected cause of the Sunset Pavilion fire five weeks ago was that a discarded cigarette touched off gas.

In Washington, Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., announced just a few hours after the fire was quelled that he asked two government agencies to consider sending representatives here to determine what aid may be extended this resort city 55 miles south of New York City.

The Asbury Pavilion fire ate up 650 feet of boardwalk and several stores. Nine firemen suffered minor injury.

One major criticism voiced by military men is that all problems cannot be reduced to mathematical equations and computer treatment.

These uniformed critics — and there are some key civilians who share their views — contend the operations analysts are so bemused by what they think is rational and logical that they do not give due consideration to the possibility of illogical action by the Soviets.

THREE TOP NAMES

Another criticism leveled at the civilian analysts is that they take slight account of human factors. Who are the "whiz kids"? Here are the thumbnail sketches of a few of the most influential:

Dr. Alain C. Enthoven, 33, a native of Seattle; Rhodes scholar; holder of Ph.D. in economics from MIT; slim, handsome product of Rand Corp., a "think factory" where he worked on strategic air warfare studies; prime mover in fostering "spare the cities" policy which envisions nuclear exchanges aimed at military complexes and bases rather than populations.

Henry S. Rowen, 37, a Bostonian, MIT graduate, did graduate work at Oxford and another product of Rand. Tall, sandy-haired, studious-looking has had great impact in formulating limited and conventional war policies.

Dr. Harold Brown, 36, a nuclear physicist and director of the famed Lawrence Radiation Laboratory before becoming powerful director of defense research and engineering. Views weigh heavily in approval or disapproval of weapons projects. Dark, casual-dressing native of New York City and Columbia graduate where he won Ph.D.

SCRIBE FEELS DISARMAMENT IS "FAR OFF"

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The dispute about the nuclear test ban treaty, even though the Senate seems certain to approve it, gives a priceless insight into how far off world disarmament is.

President Kennedy and his advisers — diplomats, military and scientific — all think it is to this country's interest to agree to a limited test ban with Russia. But others, in and out of Congress, have doubts and forebodings.

The doubters persist in their misgivings about the treaty — which prohibits testing in the atmosphere, outer space and under water but permits it underground — despite assurances given the Senate by:

"MINOR RISKS"

1. Secretary of State Dean Rusk — that the United States could detect at once any Russian try at cheating.

2. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara — that the United States is, and will remain, superior to Russia in nuclear weapons, even under a test ban.

3. Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission — that any risks to this country under the treaty would be "minor."

All this is not assurance enough for the troubled ones.

They express suspicions and fears that the Russians some how, some way, can use the ban to American disadvantage.

Not long ago in this country there was widespread contempt for Russian abilities. That attitude, never valid, has disintegrated in just 14 years under three great shocks:

1949—When the Russians exploded their first atomic bomb; 1953—When they exploded their first hydrogen bomb just one year after this country did; 1967—When they sent the first satellite, Sputnik, around the earth.

Some of the misgivings about the test ban treaty now may be attributed to a reverse psychology. Not only fear of Russian ability but even an inferiority about it.

For instance fear that the Russians are so clever they can hoodwink this country and surge ahead in nuclear weapons even though under the same limitation the treaty would put on this country.

SPOTTING CHEATING

Carry this attitude one more step: While cheating under the treaty could be detected, as Rusk said, since devices could record an atmospheric blast, any cheating under a disarmament agreement would be far harder to spot.

It therefore follows from the misgivings about the test ban that if this country ever undertook a disarmament agreement with Russia shudders of doubt would shake the United States and perhaps make such an agreement impossible.

For this reason any hope of world disarmament in the foreseeable future looks like a pipe dream. But the alternative to disarmament is continuing armament. In short this country and the

Women's Fall Shoe Styles Feature Hardy Leather Soles

Shoes with leather soles should head-line women's footwear this fall. Suitable to any occasion, leather soled shoes may be worn for daytime dress, evening formal or casual wear.

Changes in the leather tanning process have made leather soles more flexible than in the past. New resin-impregnated leather soles make walking easier and offer 50 to 100 per cent longer wear.

These new leather soles don't stretch nor do they detract from the comfort or wearing quality of the shoes. Soles have high water resistance to safeguard against discomfort, and have been specially treated to prevent slipping on sidewalks or highly polished floors.

Women buying fall footwear will find leather soles are lightweight, meet fashion standards, and will remain in good shape for the life of the shoe.

NEED NUTRITIOUS BREAKFASTS

When family members eat breakfast together, each person is more likely to have a nutritious meal than if he ate alone.

Since children are back in school, now's a good time to get your family to eat this first meal of the day together.

Fruit or fruit juice helps wake up sleepy appetites and provides important vitamins. Serve a protein-rich food each morning.

Conventional breakfasts usually include toast or other bread with eggs or cereal and milk as their protein source. But unconventional breakfasts with protein foods, such as a cheese sandwich, a hamburger, or a hot dog, are valuable, too. The high-protein foods include meat, poultry, fish, eggs, milk, cheese, cottage cheese, peanut butter, and cereal with milk.

To round out your breakfast, serve milk or a beverage made with milk.

HATMAKING—BY MAIL

Making hats for yourself or other women can be an interesting hobby and give you some pin money, too.

If you're a beginner at hatmaking, you'll find the information you need for this at-home project in a correspondence course. Available world, despite the limited test ban treaty which has been called a first possible step toward better understandings, seem headed for an arms race for years to come.

able from the Pennsylvania State University, the course gives directions for fashioning hats from fabrics, feathers, flowers, ribbons, straws, and felts. Instructions are included for curing pheasant skins and feathers before using them to design a hat.

Supplies you'll need for your project and where to buy them are listed. Illustrations show hat contours suitable for various shaped faces, and instructions are given for renovating hats.

You can get the hatmaking course for $1.50 from Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Make your check or money order payable to the Pennsylvania State University. All course material will be sent promptly and mailing costs are prepaid.

GOLDWATER IS COMING OCT. 10

HERSHEY, Pa. — (AP) — Pennsylvania Republicans are looking forward to the appearance of Sen. Barry Goldwater at a dinner here Oct. 10.

They expect the Arizona Republican, a frontrunner for the GOP presidential nomination next year, to clarify his views on party-voting strength in large industrial states like Pennsylvania.

What Goldwater has to say on this point could go a long way in determining how the Pennsylvania delegation will vote at the GOP nominating convention next summer.

But of more immediate interest to state Republicans is Goldwater's drawing power for a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner here next month.

That was the principal topic at a meeting of the GOP finance committee here Wednesday night to map plans for the dinner.

"American Indian Day" Proclaimed

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Seneca Indians have "responded to adversity with dignity and courage," Gov. Rockefeller said today in noting they were "faced with the loss of their precious Allegany Reservation."

The reservation is giving way to a federal flood-control project. Rockefeller commented in a proclamation designating Sept. 21 "American Indian Day" in New York State.

The word Nevada is Spanish and means "snow-clad." Calcium exerts a steadying influence on the nerves.

Mine Acid Kills 10,000 River Fish

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mine acid washed into the West Branch of the Susquehanna River by heavy rain last week have killed about 10,000 fish, the State Health Department reports. The concentration of Acid, several miles long, has been moving downriver about four miles a day. It reached Williamsport on Wednesday. Morton Wilt, regional sanitary engineer at Williamsport, said fresh water flowing into the river from streams in the area should neutralize the acid, preventing additional fish kills down stream. Wilt said about 80 per cent of the estimated 10,000 fish killed in a 15 to 18-mile stretch of the river were less than three inches in length.

The latest FBI report shows that crime in this country set a new record last year, and is increasing four times as rapidly as the population. More than 2 million serious offenses were recorded — an average of four a minute.

POLICE CHECK CITY STREETS OF HIGH POINT

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP)—Police patrolled downtown streets with tear gas bombs and fire trucks equipped with high pressure hoses after a near-riot in this racially tense city Wednesday night.

Officers used tear gas and fire trucks to disperse about 2,000 whites who bombarded Negro demonstrators with rocks, eggs, tomatoes and other missiles. Main Street was blocked off to traffic and pedestrians for more than an hour after the disturbance.

Mayor Floyd Mehan, accusing Negro leaders of making "dangerous, dictatorial and inconsistent statements," scheduled a special meeting of the City Council to deal with the racial situation.

AREA CLEARED
The downtown area was cleared when whites began regrouping after reports that a second Negro march was planned. Negro leaders called off the march.

Most of High Point's 80-man police force and other officers remained on duty through the night. At the mayor's request, 25 sheriff's deputies and 32 state troopers reinforced police for Wednesday night's demonstration.

The Rev. B. Elton Cox, a field representative for the Congress of Racial Equality, has demanded total integration of this industrial city of 65,000 persons. He rejected a request from the mayor Tuesday to declare a moratorium on demonstrations.

According to a statement given the school board, the school administration in discontinuing the practice of day by day reading of the Bible and reciting the Lord's Prayer did "this with reservations. However, we truly believe in our form of government." The statement added:

PRESENTS CHALLENGE

"We believe and trust in the good judgment of the courts and we have explicit faith in the judicial arm of our democracy. As Christians, it presents a challenge for us to become more diligent in our daily devotions; to read the word of God more purposefully and to make it a rule of thumb that no day shall pass without a private period of devotion during which time we communicate with our Creator in prayer. We beg you to become more faithful to the faith of our fathers which is living still."

"All of this has presented another challenge to those of us who are not only responsible for the educational program, but also the moral and spiritual welfare of the youth of our country. In this challenge we have outlined a program which will be followed in the Littlestown Joint Schools during the school year, and we feel if the teacher and pupils will diligently and honestly adhere to its execution, ours and their spiritual manner will be enhanced and the moral behavior of all will be improved."

The school board meeting Tuesday was conducted by President Wilbur E. Mackley and opened with prayer by George S. Worley. Secretary Henry E. Waltman gave his report. The treasurer's report showed the August receipts to be $65,265 and expenditures, $35,854.28. Bills were approved for payment. The board authorized the president and secretary to sign the necessary papers for presentation to the Adams County court for approval of Guy L. Conover as special police officer for the district.

ELECT TWO TEACHERS

Rex Maddox, chairman of the property and supplies committee, reported that it is expected to have a new scoreboard ready for Friday's home football game but the new bleachers will not be available this year. Charles W. Weikert, reporting for the teacher committee, followed. William S. Newman was elected art teacher and Mrs. Elven Chronister was elected First Grade teacher. No salaries were announced.

Plays His 12th Allenberry Role

Don Draper, a member of the Broadway cast of "Advise and Consent," makes his 12th consecutive utive Allenberry appearance in the role of the college professor who is terrified in the presence of women, in the current showing of "Ladies' Night" in a Turkish Bath" being presented this week and next. He gives a good performance as a brilliant teacher who is afraid of everything female but spiders.

Director Richard North Gage has recruited Jane Farnol, popular ingenue from last year and a graduate of the British Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts, to portray the college girl who falls in love with the professor. Araminta Gully, from the Harrisburg Junior Theater, plays Jane's mother. William McKereghan, a seven-year veteran at Allenberry and Margaret Janney, Gage's assistant, are teamed as man and wife, as are David Brubaker and Donna Curtis. Elissa Lane adds to the fun as a strip tease dancer.

The story has to do with the misadventures of the professor and a group of his friends who attend a costume stag party. When the police raid the party they seek refuge in an adjoining Turkish bath, not knowing they are invading the privacy of a ladies' night party at which their wives are present.

The first and third acts are laid in a New York apartment and the second act in the Cosmopolitan, where all the mix-ups occur.

school and 611 in the junior-senior high, as reported by Paul E. King, supervising principal. Football camp was conducted with 63 boys reporting and 51 boys remained on the squad. The first home game will be played Friday night against South Western.

Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal, reported that several adjustments have been made on student schedules and changes are being made on the master schedule to make the program more functional. Senior high school students club program was initiated on Tuesday with all students taking a club.

STUDENT TEACHERS

The following students from Gettysburg College are doing their student teaching at LHS the first semester: Donald Smith, social studies; Mrs. Karen Robert, mathematics; Anthony Emory, French; Don Szegda, physical education.

The elementary principal, John H. Riley, reported that a physical fitness program under the planning and supervision of John D. Bream and Mrs. Kay C. Sentz is being followed in Grades One through Six. The teachers are carrying out the program in Grades One through Five. In the Sixth Grade it is part of the departmental program. Several changes have been made in the curriculum and grouping over the years. The students of Grades Three and Four are grouped according to reading level. The grouping was done according to the recommendations of the child's previous teacher plus reading tests done by a reading supervisor.

French will be taught in two sections of Grade Four and all of Grades Five and Six. Instructions of string instruments will be continued in Grades Four, Five and Six. The library's schedule this year is being arranged where each room will have an opportunity to avail themselves of the facilities.

Mr. Riley also reported for the transportation department that the jointure is using 10 buses this year with five of them making two trips. All buses were recently inspected. Guy Conover has been licensed and is being used as a substitute driver. He is also custodian of the buses. Most of the roads are in good condition. Those which are in need of repair have been reported to the proper authorities.

All bus drivers have complied with recent legislation by having an evacuation drill during the first week of school on the parking lot. Another will be held prior to the end of March anywhere convenient on the bus run. The following drivers attended the annual Adams County school bus drivers' institute held recently at Bermudian Springs High School: Guy Conover, Elmer W. Gall, John Ingram, Gordon Warner, Dale Hamm, Elven Chronister and Mr. Riley.

The board will meet again on Tuesday, October 8.

TEST BAN PACT GETTING MORE SENATE HELP

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate drive for ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty appeared today to have picked up more supporters.

Democratic and Republican leaders, working hand in hand to steer the agreement through the Senate, counted almost 80 votes in favor of the treaty to prohibit all tests except underground.

Only three days ago, an Associated Press survey found 73 senators were for it. A two-thirds majority is needed for ratification—67 if all 100 senators vote.

The drive got another big push Wednesday—from President Kennedy and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

PUSH BUILDUP

In a letter, Kennedy gave the Senate "unqualified and unequivocal assurances" that there will be no letup in the defense buildup if the treaty is put into effect.

But it was Dirksen who gave the so-called "great debate" its drama.

In a frequently impassioned speech, he threw his unqualified support behind ratification with reservations or any formal understandings.

"We are fully assured of a program that will keep us strong in the nuclear field and give us the requisite strength to meet any challenge to our security and our vital interest," Dirksen declared after reading Kennedy's statement to the Senate.

Whether the President's letter or Dirksen's speech changed any minds was not known for certain. However, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who has indicated doubts about the treaty, said the President's letter "should leave no doubt about the determination of the President to carry out in good faith the assurances requested by the Senate."

Kennedy, in his letter addressed to Dirksen and Sen. Mike Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, sought to allay every concern which has been raised about the treaty in Senate debate.

He gave "unqualified and unequivocal" assurances—which Dirksen had asked—that:

1. Underground testing will be pursued "vigorously and diligently" and strong laboratories maintained in a vigorous program of weapons development.
 2. The United States remains ready to resume atmospheric testing immediately if the Soviets should break the treaty.
 3. Facilities for the detection of violations will be expanded and improved.
 4. The treaty in no way limits presidential authority to use nuclear weapons "for the defense of the United States and its allies, if a situation should develop requiring such a grave decision."
- The latter assurance was obviously aimed at reducing votes for a reservation proposed by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to write these assurances into the resolution of ratification.

Hill Shopping Center, N.J., Saturday will leave the church at 6:30 a.m.

The announcement was made at the first fall meeting of the Ever-willing Sunday School Class of St. John's which is sponsoring the trip, held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Ellen Bortner, Crouse Park. The program opened with the playing of several religious records by Mrs. Bortner, who also read scripture and offered prayer. Poems were read by Mrs. Gladys Eyer and Mrs. Viola Badders. Hymns were played with those present participating in the singing. Members participated in the program by reading quotations by famous personalities, following by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Kathryn Morehead, president, presided for the business meeting and led plans for future fund raising projects for the class. Mrs. Bernice Yealy gave the secretary's report. During the social hour a group game was played and refreshments were served by Mrs. Bortner. The next regular meeting of the class will be Tuesday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frances Dutler, Littlestown R. 1.

CHURCH ASKS END OF HELP TO VIET NAM

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Church introduces a resolution today calling for a halt of all U.S. aid to South Viet Nam unless the Diem government abandons its "policies of repression" and wins popular support.

"The persecution of Buddhists by the present government of South Viet Nam is an affront to the good conscience of the American people," the Idaho Democrat said in a speech prepared for Senate delivery.

"If these cruel repressions are not abandoned, further American aid to this government should be terminated, and American personnel withdrawn," Church said in introducing a resolution to that effect.

LOSS TO COMMUNISM

"The loss of South Viet Nam to communism would be deplorable, and particularly bitter after so long and agonizing an effort there," Church said.

"But, in the end, the country will fall victim to the relentless Communist penetration unless the Diem regime abandons its policies of repression, or another non-Communist regime emerges to rally the people."

"The recent mass protests in the cities of South Viet Nam demonstrate that there is a mighty reservoir of anti-Communist feeling which could yet give greater popular support to the war against the Viet Cong."

SEEK TO FREE PLANE'S CREW

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger has requested coalition and Pathet Lao officials to seek the release of survivors of an American C-47 cargo plane shot down Sept. 5 by Communist groundfire, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said today. The plane, on a supply drop mission for Royalist refugees, was manned by three Americans and four Asians. It was hit near the southern Communist stronghold of Tchepone.

A Pathet Lao radio broadcast said some of the plane's occupants perished in the wreckage, but others bailed out and were taken prisoner by the Pathet Lao. The broadcast did not give the number of survivors or their nationalities.

The aircraft was chartered by the U.S. Aid Agency, and was operating on behalf of the Laotian government.

3 READY TO ENTER UNIV.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Three Negroes were to attend classes at the University of South Carolina today for the first time in 86 years.

The university was integrated quietly Wednesday with the graduation of coed Henri Monteith, 18, of Columbia, Robert G. Anderson, 20, of Greenville, and James Solomon, 33, of Sumter.

Negroes last attended the university in 1877 during the reconstruction period after the Civil War.

About 100 students watched from various parts on the campus as the three Negroes picked up registration papers, visited with deans and paid their fees.

City and state police reinforced campus officers, but they were not needed. Miss Monteith and Anderson ended their first day on campus with dinner at a student cafeteria. White students sat with them and spoke to them. Several paused at Anderson's table to shake his hand.

The university is the second state-supported white college in South Carolina to be integrated. Clemson College admitted Harvey B. Gantt of Charleston in January.

OIL DERRICK COLLAPSES KILLING TWO

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — A collapsing derrick killed two men helping drill an oil well Wednesday night, a third suffered serious injuries as he was hurled more than 100 feet to the ground.

The accident happened shortly before midnight at a well being drilled 45 miles southwest of here in West Texas.

SHAHER URGES MORE RIGHTS

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer said today the federal government should "give back to the states and to the local governments the rights and responsibilities that the founding fathers of this nation intended them to have."

In a speech before the 15th annual conference of the Municipal Assessors' Association of Pennsylvania, Shafer said:

"States like Pennsylvania and communities like yours are ready to do the job. Federal grants-in-aid which our state receives, cost our citizens far more in taxes than we derive in benefits."

"We could accomplish what was necessary—and I stress the word 'necessary'—far more economically, far more efficiently, if the federal tax structure were revised."

"The Scranton administration," Shafer said, "is fully cognizant of the need for healthy, strong, and vibrant communities. Our planning, in every phase, is directed to that end."

DRIVING BOTH SIDES OF THE STREET

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Kansas started a crackdown in 1962 against motor vehicle drivers who are "legally blind." Proof of their condition was that the persons be receiving state welfare aid for blindness. In 15 months, 136 such persons surrendered their driver's licenses.

Prelate Denies Audience Banning

NEW YORK (AP) — Archbishop Pierre Martin Ngo Dinh Thuc, brother of South Viet Nam's president, has denied reports by Vatican sources that a papal audience had been canceled because of the explosive political situation in his country.

When the Roman Catholic prelate arrived at Idlewild Airport Wednesday, he told newsmen: "I did not request any audience. It has been scheduled to be held when I return to Rome."

The archbishop, 65, said he will return to Rome within the week and will be there for the Sept. 29 reopening of the Ecumenical Council.

Asked why the Vatican ordered him not to discuss Viet Nam politics, Archbishop Thuc replied with a smile, "They are afraid of you journalists."

He added that the ban was imposed "because it is not my duty to mention politics."

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire Co. will be held September 18 at 8 p.m. in the social room.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Alwood and family have moved to York.

TO BUY PLANTS

NEW YORK (AP) — Directors of Remington Arms Co., Inc., Bridgeport, Conn., approved a proposal to acquire a majority interest in Brewer Pharmaceutical Engineering Corp. of Upper Darby, Pa., for about $1.5 million.

The transaction is subject to approval of Brewer stockholders. Brewer produces a system for controlling medication to hospital patients. Remington makes arms, ammunition and tools. It is controlled by E. I. du Pont.

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — The regular meeting of the Women's Society of World Service of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church was held at the church hall Monday evening with 11 members and two guests in attendance.

The president, Mrs. Dale Wetzel, opened the meeting with prayer. After the hymn "I Am Thine, O Lord," reports of the secretary and treasurer were received. A nominating committee was appointed including Mrs. Robert Shindedecker, Mrs. Wendel Wetzel and Mrs. John Baker. There were reports from the society's various departments and several payments were ordered.

Mrs. Robert Shindedecker was leader for the worship program in which the group joined in prayer and the hymn "O Master, Let Me walk with Thee." The study subject was "People Praying." Mrs. Clyde Metz read a poem and a hymn followed. The closing prayer was given by the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt. A social hour followed with Mrs. George Haines as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Biesecker, Hanover, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd King and Mrs. Beulah Biesecker.

Kermit Wetzel, of Solly, Md., and Joseph Jarosey, Baltimore, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel.

MAURY WILLS DODGER ASSET

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Call it pride. Or tenacity. Or maybe just plain guts. But because Maury Wills has it the Los Angeles Dodgers are fighting for the National League pennant.

The classy little shortstop who captivated the nation last season with his base stealing may be overshadowed this year by the sizzling pitching of Sandy Koufax or the clutch hitting of Tommy Davis. But no one can dispute his value to the team.

Take Wednesday night's game against the Pittsburgh Pirates. Wills, in typical fashion, ignited three run-scoring rallies with two singles and a double and drove in a pair of runs with a bases-loaded single in sparking the Dodgers to a 9-4 rout.

The important victory maintained the Dodgers' three-game lead over the streaking St. Louis Cardinals, who beat Chicago 4-0. "I just want to win and this ball club wants to win," Wills said, relaxing in the clubhouse after the game.

"This ball club is depending on me to do certain things and I have a lot to live up to. If nothing else I have to live up to being the most valuable player in the league last year."

3 MUSICIANS HELD IN HAZING DEATH OF BOY

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Police held three members of the Charleston High School band today pending a decision on action in the case of a sophomore boy who died after band initiation hazing.

Michael Murphy, 15, was taken from the school gym Wednesday and was pronounced dead on arrival at Charleston General Hospital.

Authorities said he apparently died from shock following "the pink belly treatment—abdominal thumping administered in informal initiation hazing."

"PINK BELLY"

The names of the three band members—all 16 years old—who allegedly participated in the hazing were not disclosed. Police juvenile authorities and the county prosecutor's office met today to decide if the case should go to juvenile court or to an adult court. No charges were immediately filed.

Detective Robert Gunnoe said the three boys told him it was the practice for upper class bandmen to apply "the pink belly" to new band members. The incident took place in a gym equipment room during a gym class break. No instructors were present.

"This sort of thing definitely is not approved by the school," Gunnoe said, "but apparently it is tolerated."

ART WALL JR. 2 UNDER PAR

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Art Wall Jr., the Pocono Manor, Pa., pro, fired a two-under par 68 here to win the Philadelphia PGA championship tournament for the second consecutive year.

His nearest rival was seven strokes back. Wall posted three birdies and a bogey as he bested par 70 at the Atlantic City Country Club Wednesday for the third straight day.

Scores of 67-66-68—201 were more than enough to give Wall his third Philadelphia PGA title and the $600 prize money.

Al Nelson, of Whitford, who trailed Wall by just three strokes going into the final round, finished second with a 69-72-208.

Pat Schwab, Rock Manor, came in third with a 71-68-70—209.

FINDS NO SIGN OF REVOLT IN EAST GERMANY

BERLIN (AP) — Dissatisfaction of the East German people with the Communist regime continues to be widespread, but after a week behind the iron curtain this reporter found no evidence that a new revolt is brewing.

The morale of the people, despite tough political pressures and scarcity of certain essential food items, seemed higher than it was seven months ago when I last visited East Germany.

Because of the unusually severe winter and its resulting serious fuel and food shortages, the people's mood then was explosive.

GOOD HARVEST

But East Germany since has had a good harvest and there certainly are no shortages of such staples as bread and potatoes.

On the other hand, butter continues to be expensive and short in supply—one-half pound being allotted per person every 10 days. Fresh meat also is scarce but all kinds of sausage were abundantly available.

INCREASED BITTERNESS

While complaints about food and other consumer goods have decreased since last winter, there is increased bitterness over political pressures.

Factory workers, probably because of the forthcoming general election, are subjected to at least two political meetings a week.

In a conversation with two ranking government officials, this correspondent invited them tongue-in-cheek to a dinner in West Berlin.

Both avoided saying that the Red wall dividing the city would prevent them.

20 SOVIET DIVISIONS

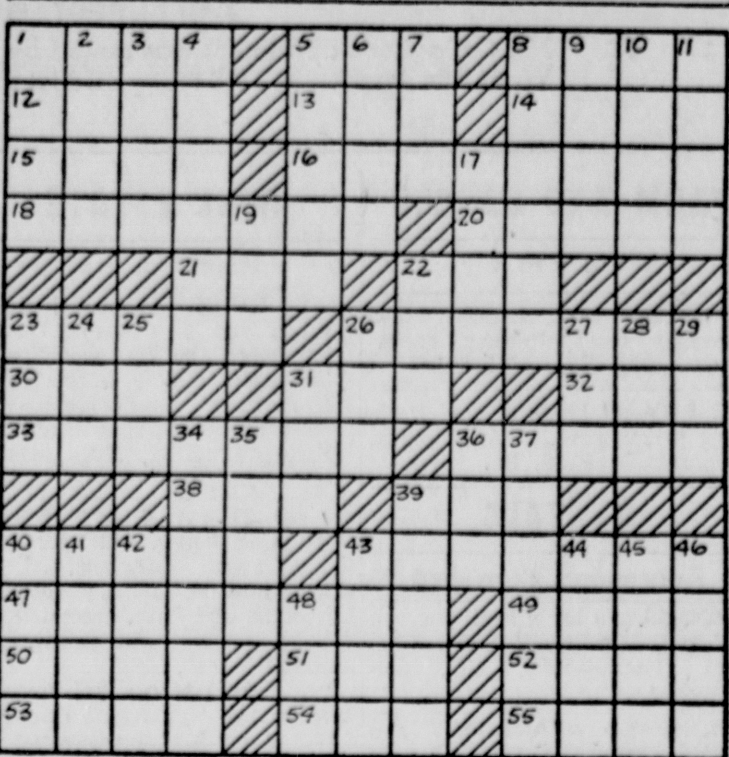

Instead, one answered this way:

"I really have no desire to come to West Berlin. I get enough money and my wife gets enough money. We have a nice house near a lake and we have a sailboat."

The second official said something similar. Neither one said anything about being convinced Communists.

Even if the climate at this time was such that the people wanted

Miner Killed In Dynamite Blast

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An Elk County man died at Mercy Hospital early today from an apparent brain injury suffered in a dynamite explosion at a strip mine.

Ronald J. Neal, 51, of Benzett died about 14 hours after rocks struck him in the head Wednesday at a mine in Benzett hospital officials said. He was taken first to a DuBois hospital, then transferred to Mercy. Neal was employed by the P. and L. Coal Co.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI ended his summer stay at Castel Gandolfo today.

The Roman Catholic ruler drove the 15 miles from the summer papal residence to Rome before the morning rush hour traffic.

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP)—Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall is climbing Africa's highest mountain, 19,565-foot Mt. Kilimanjaro, in north Tanganyika today. His party is expected to return this weekend.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Shields Warren, an authority on atomic radiation, was named to receive the Atomic Energy Commission citation.

Warren was cited for outstanding service as U.S. representative to the U.N. scientific committee on the effects of atomic radiation.

Warren is scientific director of the New England Deaconess Hospital's Cancer Research Institute in Boston and a professor of pathology at Harvard.

World News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Since the Voice of America increased its transmitting power early this year, primitive villagers in the north have accused the U.S. agency of practicing witchcraft.

It seems that with the boost from 8,000 to 10,000 kilowatts, the stronger radio beams, especially after showers, are picked up by metal objects. This has made radios out of such things as bed-springs, and even caused damp leaves to issue a sound resembling an eerie human whisper.

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda today defended Japan's trade with Communist China.

"I fail to understand why so much fuss is made over our trade with Red China," he told newsmen.

"Our feet are planted in the free world and it is on the basis of that position that we are conducting trade with Red China on a purely commercial basis."

SEOUL (AP)—An attempt by feuding politicians to unite behind a single presidential candidate to oppose junta chief Chung Hee park ended today amid fisticuffs.

The Party of the People, an unprecedented attempt to get civilian politicians to work together, split into two factions. Each nominated a candidate for the Oct. 15 presidential election. The split apparently left the 45-year-old Park, candidate of the junta-backed Democratic Republican Party, without serious opposition.

Tucson Woman Lives Below Ground Level To Help Save Money And Cure Arthritis

By MARGARET KUELTHAU

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Living in a hole in the ground has its disadvantages — but Mrs. Margaret J. Campbell is convinced it has cured her arthritis.

Home to her is a series of rooms 25, 35, 45 and 60 feet below the surface.

To get to her living room, you clamber down an almost perpendicular stairway for 25 feet.

This has a tendency to discourage visitors.

This is all right with Mrs. Campbell, 63 years old. She likes to read and write without interruption.

When she needs more room for her books, she just digs out another shelf.

HAD TWO REASONS

Mrs. Campbell came to Tucson from Tampa, Fla., in 1945. "I had arthritis very badly," she says. "I was so sick I thought I'd die."

There were two reasons she went underground.

She'd been told the temperature underground is almost uniform throughout the year. This, she thought, should be good for arthritis.

And she didn't have much money.

So she picked a likely-looking spot at 1926 S. Santa Rita Ave.

and started digging.

LEARNS ABOUT ROCKS

At that time she didn't know about caliche, a rock-like substance that starts a few inches beneath the top soil and can extend down for feet.

"I don't know how I did it," she now admits.

"I'd tie four buckets to a rope and drop them in the hole. Then I'd go down the ladder and dig until I'd filled them with caliche. Then I'd climb up the ladder again to the top, empty them, and drop them down again. Then I'd start all over again."

"It's a lot of climbing—from the 60 foot level to the outside world." She built the hoist herself.

"But it has been worth it. Down here I don't have arthritis. The past few years I've been able to work. I keep coming home to my cave and sleeping down here where the temperature never changes, and I feel fine."

Mrs. Campbell, a widow with a son living in town, works as a part-time waitress. Living in the hole has an added advantage, she finds; she doesn't have to pay taxes because it's not a house.

Her underground home is in a residential neighborhood. Her neighbors like her, but their visits are limited because of that fearsome combination ladder-step descent into her living room.

The living room is at the first 25-foot level. The room is 9 x 12 feet and 7 feet high. There is a refrigerator, television set, piano, a couple of straight chairs, a rollaway bed and scores of books.

The books are on how to learn and speak German, French, Spanish, Arabic, Hebrew and Russian. There are books on poetry, art and music—and the room is immaculately clean and tidy.

So are the rooms on the other levels, each 9 x 12.

Mrs. Campbell believes she inherited her love of literature and study from her father who was a minister in her native North Carolina.

FATHER WROTE

"My daddy spent all his time reading and writing poetry—writing, writing, writing," she says. "As soon as I learned to write when I was seven years old, I started too. My mother always said, 'Look at her, she's just like her daddy.'"

Now Mrs. Campbell has written a book. Through the years she has saved and skimped and scraped together $2,490 to pay for having it published. It is called "Iba the Dawn."

"I'm frightened about the way things are today," she says. "People get so excited when they are wronged and, in mobs, do things they regret later."

"My book tells how prejudice and greed can ruin a nation. I just hope my writing will do some good."

First broadcast of a presidential inauguration was that of Calvin Coolidge in 1925. The first telecast of such an event was Harry Truman's inauguration that occurred in 1949.

Always the heart of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax...? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

Big Canaveral Base Being Made Bigger As Scientists Plan For Launching Shots To Moon And Planets Soon

By HOWARD BENEDICT
Associated Press Aerospace Writer

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Cape Canaveral is expanding rapidly to make room for the mammoth launching facilities from which astronauts one day will vault toward the moon and planets.

For 13 years, Canaveral's gantries have been confined to a 15,000-acre tract which juts into the Atlantic Ocean like a giant arrowhead (see map). Now the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) is acquiring 87,000 additional acres on which to construct facilities of almost unbelievable dimension.

NASA is spending about $55 million for the land, most of it on Merritt Island — a large land mass west and northwest of the present Cape and separated from it by the Banana River. The land is mainly swamp, woods and orange groves.

More than 5,000 construction workers are on the job already. By mid-1964, there will be 4,000 more. In the next three years, $1.7 billion will be spent on building in the new and old areas and Canaveral's total working population is expected to climb from 25,000 to 47,000.

LIKE COLLEGE CAMPUS

Work has started on several buildings which will form the industrial heart of NASA's Merritt Island operations. The operations center will be a sprawling structure with sections up to 10 stories tall. It will have checkout facilities for the Project Gemini two-man spacecraft and the Project Apollo moonship, plus office space for 1,800 administrative personnel.

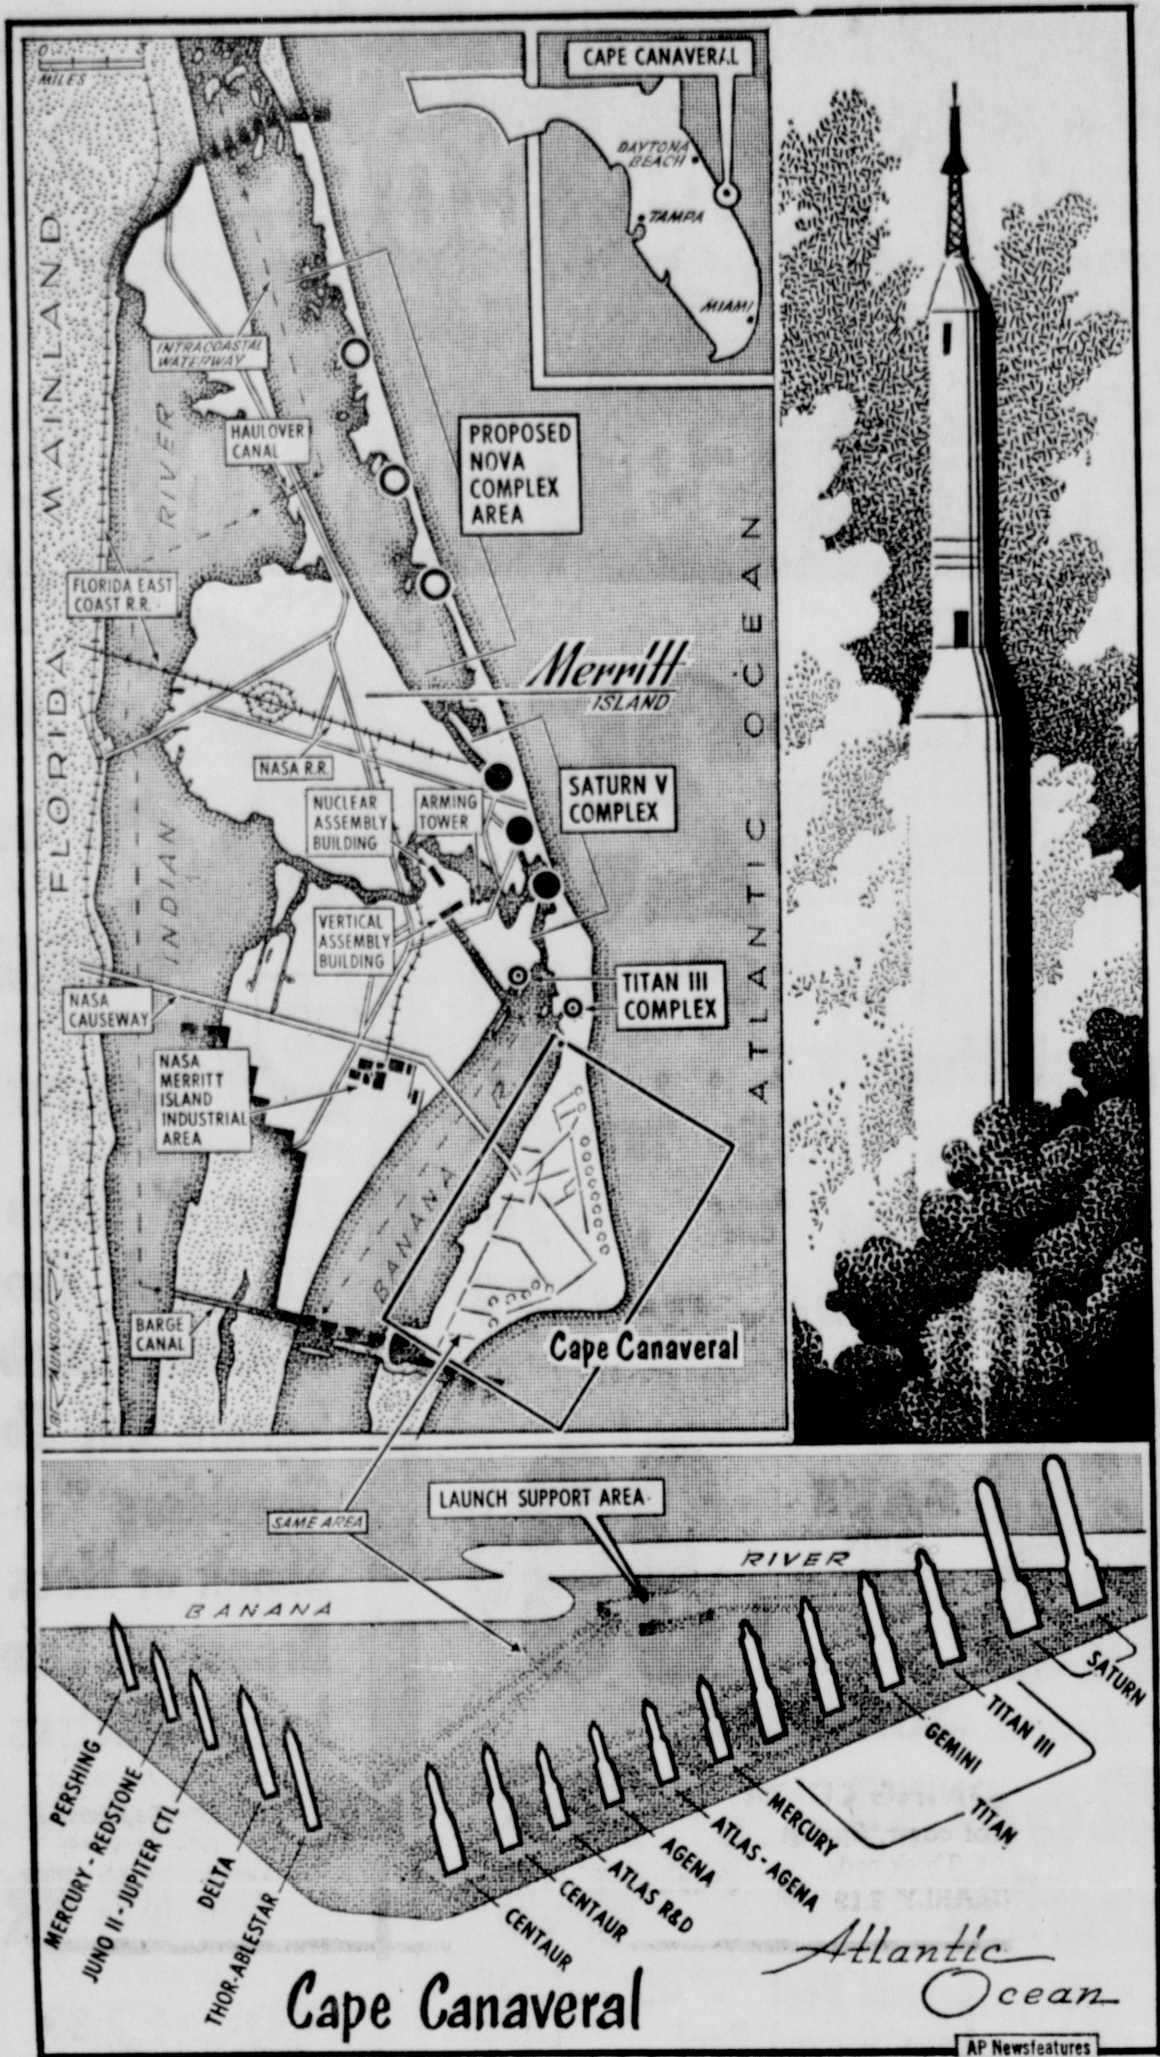

When supply, environmental control, fuel, storage and other buildings are completed in the industrial area in about two years, it will resemble a college campus.

Towering high above anything else on Merritt Island will be the elements of Launch Complex No. 39, which will include three launching pads for the 360-foot-tall Saturn 5 rocket which will boost Apollo astronauts toward the moon late in this decade. Center of the complex will be a Vertical Assembly Building where four Saturn 5 rockets can be assembled and checked simultaneously. The building will be 524 feet tall, more than two city blocks long and 230 feet wide.

AS BUFFER ZONE

Much of the land being purchased by NASA will serve merely as a buffer zone to protect the ears and property of citizens from noise and shock waves created by the big rockets, which will generate 7.5 million pounds of thrust. A sizable tract has been earmarked for facilities for the Nova class rockets planned beyond Gemini. These may top the 500-foot mark and will be used for manned planetary journeys.

The space agency also is building a railroad and a four-lane causeway to breach two rivers which separate the present Cape Canaveral from the Florida mainland.

An island has been created in the Banana River to accommodate one of two launching pads for Titan 3, an Air Force rocket being developed to carry the Dyna-Soar manned space glider and other military space payloads.

REBUILD 2 COMPLEXES

In the present Cape area, work is nearing completion on Launch Complex 37 for two pads for the early Saturn 1 and 1B models, each of which will have 1.5 million pounds thrust in the first stage. Four Saturn 1s have been test-fired successfully from Complex No. 34. A number of operational missions are planned for these boosters, including early earth orbit flights of the Apollo mooncraft.

Complexes 19 and 20, once used in the Titan 1 missile test program, are being rebuilt for Titan 2, which will boost Gemini astronaut teams, and for an early model of the Titan 3. First Gemini manned flight is scheduled late next year.

OTHER PROGRESS

Complex 14, from which Atlas rockets successfully hurled four Americans into orbit, is being redesigned for the Atlas-Agena rockets which will launch the target satellites for later Gemini rendezvous maneuvers. Complex 13, former Atlas testing area, is being redone as an Atlas-Agena pad for a number of unmanned space explorations.

A second Atlas-Centaur launch pad is nearing completion. This rocket, which burns high-energy liquid hydrogen fuel in the second stage, will boost unmanned spacecraft to explore the moon in advance of the Apollo astronaut landings.

Mercury Control Center, from which all six U.S. astronaut flights were directed, is being enlarged and redesigned for Gemini.

The Story Behind The Book

THE AGE OF LOUIS XIV

By Will and Ariel Durant

"The Age of Louis XIV," eighth volume of Will and Ariel Durant's monumental 10-volume series, "The Story of Civilization," is the Book-of-the-Month Club selection for September.

Louis XIV ruled France for 72 years, from 1643 until 1715. He stamped his personality not only upon his own realm but upon most of Europe more deeply than any monarch since the days of Rome.

Through war and diplomacy he made France the dominant European power. Through his wisdom, his taste and his generosity he set her up as the artistic and social leader of Western civilization.

This intellectual side of the Sun King's world, the side of reason and peace — this is the aspect of history that particularly fascinates Will and Ariel Durant. Explorers and voyagers get little space compared with the men who stayed at home — to write books, paint pictures, discover scientific laws, compose music and enliven the salons of Paris with their epigrams. The quiet philosopher Spinoza is given a whole chapter. The rise of the life insurance business in Louis XIV's reign is described, as are the great scientific advances of the age.

ROMANTIC STORIES

Romantic stories far stranger than fiction mark the Durant chronicle. One learns of the tragic-comedy of Sabbatai Zevi, who claimed to be the Messiah and was welcomed by hundreds of thousands of rejoicing Jews and ended as a Moslem prisoner. Or of the fantastic epic of the Turkish grand vizier who invaded Austria with camels and elephants in his baggage train.

So vast was Louis' influence that gentlemen from Peru to Po-

Blue Dinnerware May Be Poisonous

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Agriculture Department has warned that blue dinnerware originating in Juarez, Mexico, may be poisonous.

The department said Wednesday that the dinnerware has been found by U. S. government authorities to contain harmful amounts of lead in its glazed finish.

The dinnerware apparently is a tourist item not involved in commercial shipments, the department added.

Two Outstanding Airmen Honored

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Pennsylvanians were among a group of 22 enlisted men honored by the Air Force Wednesday as outstanding airmen.

They are S/Sgt. Kenneth N. Bracken of Johnstown, and T/Sgt. Joseph Patrick O'Connor of Altoona.

Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Curtis E. Lemay paid tribute to the men who represented each major command of the Air Force.

Lemay presented them with citations at the Air Force Association's annual convention held in the Mayflower Hotel, where the airmen and their wives were treated to a reception and dinner.

land built themselves fine houses modeled after Versailles and adorned them with classical statuary and baroque paintings. Like the grand monarch himself, these aristocrats wore high heels, periwigs, laces and flowery waistcoats. They prided themselves on being able to converse in French, the language of "true culture."

International intellectual cooperation, according to the Durants, began in the Europe of Louis XIV. Czar Peter of Russia visited most of the countries of western Europe to study their social and technical organization, before dragging Russia, "groaning and protesting," out of the Middle Ages. Louis actually put foreign scientists on the payroll of the French state without requiring them to come to France and work. Philosophers and thoughtful statesmen constantly corresponded with one another across frontiers.

"COMMON SENSE"

Gilbert Highet, in his report to club members, says of the husband-and-wife team of Will and Ariel Durant: "They combine industrious learning with sharp common sense and lively unorthodox inquisitiveness. They produce vast quantities of interesting and little-known facts."

Born in North Adams, Massachusetts, in 1885, Will Durant resolved long ago to research and write the history of civilization. He began this work while completing his doctoral thesis at Columbia University, at the time of the First World War.

At an early stage he developed his concept of integrated cultural history by lecturing on philosophy, literature, science, music and art to groups of working people in a church at 14th St. and 2nd Ave., Manhattan. Out of these lectures grew the volume which made him famous, "The Story of Philosophy" (1926) and subsequently the first volumes of "The Story of Civilization."

From 1929 on Will and Ariel Durant concentrated on the grand design for their epic work. The project has called for increasingly intensive research and study, two trips around the world, and frequent sojourns abroad. The Durants make their home today in California, in a house high in the hills above Los Angeles.

Two more books will complete their "Story of Civilization": Volume Nine, "The Age of Voltaire"; and Volume 10 "Rousseau and Revolution," which will bring the series to Napoleon and the 19th century.

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Informed sources said today the Soviet Union has made no direct offer of agricultural aid to the government of Prime Minister Cheddi B. Jagan but that help may be offered through a private firm.

RELIEF WORK PROJECTS TO BE SET UP

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Johnstown man will set up a new statewide program requiring employable relief recipients to work on certain projects.

Arin M. Adams, public welfare secretary, said Wednesday that Edward R. Golob was selected for the temporary assignment because, as executive director of the Cambria County Board of Assistance, he has been administering "one of the most successful relief work county programs in the state."

A new law requiring such work of reliefers goes into effect Oct. 14.

At present, work project assignments for persons on relief are optional with each county board of assistance. Thirty of the 67 counties do not require such work.

Sponsors of work project, which may be either public agencies or private nonprofit groups, will be required to pay workers $10 a month as additional compensation for food and clothing. Relief recipients assigned to the projects may work for the full amount of their state payments, at prevailing wage rates.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

KENNEDY: President Kennedy flies to Newport, R.I., late today to join his wife in observing their 10th wedding anniversary.

The White House gave out no information about the Kennedy's plans for celebrating their anniversary. The President plans to return to Washington Monday.

DRUGS: Senate antitrust investigators plan a preliminary probe into reports that some big U.S. drug firms tried to block the cut-rate sale of American drugs in South America.

Chairman Philip A. Hart of the antitrust subcommittee said closed hearings will be held to determine whether a full-scale investigation is justified.

PAYMENTS: The United States reportedly plans to ask 92 other nations to join in studying ways to modernize the non-Communist world's system of exchanging money and credit to keep pace with the rapid expansion of international trade.

Government sources say they have high hopes that the U.S. proposal will be accepted at the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank here Sept. 30.

"FLY ANYWHERE": The "fly anywhere" tour bargain for foreign visitors, put into effect Sept. 1 by 12 American local service airlines, hit Europe "like a bombshell," says Voit Gilmore, director of the U.S. Travel Service.

Touting it as "the world's greatest travel bargain," Gilmore said at a reception Wednesday night the special fare "is one of the greatest boosts to U.S. tourism since the government launched its 'Visit U.S.A.' campaign two years ago."

Seize Two Trunks Full Of Marijuana

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Federal narcotics agents and city police confiscated two steamer trunks and one suitcase containing 135 pounds of marijuana at North Philadelphia railroad station Wednesday.

The contraband, which was shipped here from Los Angeles, was valued at $200,000.

A Philadelphia agent, Dan Adario, said the seizure "virtually cut off the supply of marijuana users in Pennsylvania, Delaware and South Jersey."

Samuel Levine, district supervisor of the federal narcotics bureau, said the marijuana was grown in Cuba or Mexico.

Let's Look At The Record

PH.D.'S IN DEMAND
80,000 Doctorates Since 1953 Not Enough
Industry Still Absorbs Most Scientists

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.,
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

THE SHORTAGE of teachers at the college and university level continues. This is true, although the graduate schools of our great universities are granting doctoral degrees at a rate that 10 years ago would have brought accusations of being diploma mills.

Actually, there is no evidence that the long established and honored graduate schools have watered down their academic requirements. Some recent graduates have complained that if anything they are getting tougher, particularly in some departments.

But there has been a sharp increase in the number of universities that are offering graduate work to the doctoral level. Some have not been in the business very long. One state university, which we will not name, was just becoming accredited to the master's level only 10 years ago. They are now offering courses to the doctorate in at least four major fields.

It is such Johnny-come-latelies in graduate offerings who are being accused of "watering down the standards." On the other hand, a student recently from such a university complained one of them was being tougher than the old blue chip universities because the faculty believed it necessary to establish quickly a high reputation for thorough and exhaustive scholarship. He admitted he was exhausted.

THE RATE OF INCREASE in doctoral graduates since World War II is evidenced by a few sample statistics. In 1948, the first year in which the impact of service returnees, with their GI educational benefits, was felt in the graduate schools, 3,995 doctorates in philosophy and education were conferred. Less than 500 were women.

By 1954, the comparable figure had risen to 9,000 with slightly over 800 of them women.

In 1961, the most recent year for which a satisfactory figure is available, the number of doctorates conferred was 10,575, of whom 1,112 were women. But the upward trend has not been gradual. The 1954 figure was not topped until 1959. From 1954 to that date the annual output was slightly less than for 1954.

Even so, there should be today about eighty or eighty-five thousand more men and women in America's "scholarship pool" than there were in 1953.

Had all these gone into the laboratories and lecture halls of our colleges and universities, which were once the objectives and destiny of all successful graduate students, the challenge of our growing undergraduate enrollments presumably would be met.

But all of them are not going there. All large cities and many school boards of comparatively small school systems are demanding the doctorate of candidates for the superintendencies, and in some cases the high school principalships, of their public schools. The salary is often better there than it would be on a college faculty.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY are the real competitors with the college and universities for this growing, specialized supply.

Forty-six leading American universities cooperated in a statistical survey involving 18,545 doctorates from recent degree granting convocations. Industry and business had employed an overwhelming majority of those receiving their doctorates in sciences: In chemistry, 76 per cent; agriculture, 71 per cent; physics, 71 per cent; psychology, 70 per cent; engineering, 64 per cent, and biological sciences, 60 per cent.

The attractions of the college lecture halls, or some form of educational effort, had more than held their own with industry in all the other fields, ranging from a quite thin margin in mathematics to English, in which only 10 per cent went into other than educational jobs.

ANOTHER PARTIAL SURVEY reveals the extent to which the demand for fully qualified college teachers is not being met by the graduate schools. The percentage of new teachers employed each year who are fully qualified in their academic field

SINATRA MAY LOSE GAMING PERMIT IN NEV.

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Frank Sinatra, the gangling singer who branched out as an actor, businessman and gambling impresario, has been threatened with loss of his Nevada gaming license. He is accused of allegedly allowing "one of (America's) crime overlords" to stay on the premises of the Cal-Neva gambling lodge.

Sinatra, in New York Wednesday night, was not available for comment.

The Nevada Gaming Control Board said Sinatra's guest at the showman's Lake Tahoe casino on the California-Nevada state line was Sam Giancana.

OVERLORD OF CRIME
A five-point complaint submitted to the State Gaming Commission in Carson City Wednesday described Giancana, 54, of Oak Park, Ill., as "one of the 12 overlords of American crime." On for college teaching is diminishing.

In 1953, among the new teachers reporting for duty in 656 reporting colleges and universities, 31.4 per cent had doctoral degrees. Each year the percentage has declined gradually to last year's 25.4 per cent.

A regrettable point often made by all students of this problem is the rapid disappearance of qualified women from some fields of scholarship and their greatly reduced number, proportionally, on all campuses. Colleges and universities need more women teachers than they are getting. Factors entering into this regrettable situation are another story. It is enough to say here that college teaching offers a magnificent future for the young woman who qualifies herself fully for its duties and responsibilities.

Meanwhile, in the present competition for personnel, the richer institutions are raiding the faculties of those not so well financed. They, in turn, are raiding the junior colleges. Vacancies there offer a fertile field of opportunity for the young man or young woman who is on the way up.

Aug. 6 the Justice Department said Giancana was one of the rulers of the "Casa Nostra — Our Thing" crime syndicate. Nevada keeps a "Black Book" that currently lists 11 persons, one of them Giancana, as persona non grata. Those listed are banned from any Nevada gaming establishment. Knowingly permitting one of them on the premises is grounds for license revocation, though it is not a criminal offense.

The gaming board's complaint charges Sinatra knowingly played host to Giancana at Cal-Neva, located about 20 miles from Carson City, between last July 17 and July 28. Specifically he is charged with allowing Giancana to stay in one of the chalets adjoining the casino.

BRIBE ATTEMPTS
The complaint also charges a Sinatra representative, Paul d'Amato, with attempting to bribe two state gaming agents who were "performing their official duties of verifying the gross win at the gaming tables at Cal-Neva lodge." The complaint did not elaborate.

Further, Edward Olsen, gaming board chairman, said "Sinatra used vile, obscene, and indecent language, in a tone menacing in the extreme, (constituting) a threat" when Olsen talked with Sinatra by telephone about Giancana on Aug. 31.

The board said Sinatra's partners at the Cal-Neva — Henry Sanicola and Sanford Waterman — were blameless in the housing of Giancana. However, all three would lose their licenses if the commission finds against Sinatra. A spokesman for the board said Sanicola and Waterman probably would get another license if they applied.

LICENSED IN '53
Sinatra owns 50 per cent of Cal-Neva stock and has held his state-line gaming license for three seasons. He got his first Nevada gaming license in 1953 when he bought into the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas. He now owns nine per cent of Sands stock.

Sinatra has 15 days to file a notice of defense before the commission will act. He is entitled to a hearing by the five-man commission before his license could be revoked. If it is revoked, he can appeal to the Nevada courts. The Cal-Neva closed last Saturday in what a lodge spokesman described as a regular seasonal closing.

103-YEAR-OLD COST STATUTE IS UNDER FIRE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The State Superior Court has been asked to uphold the constitutionality of a 103-year-old statute imposing court costs on defendants in misdemeanor cases.

The plea was made Tuesday by John S. Halstead, Chester County assistant district attorney, seeking reversal of a decision last January by Judge Thomas E. Gawthrop of that county.

The judge ruled for the first time in Pennsylvania that the statute was unconstitutional. He vacated court costs imposed on Jay Giaccio, a Schuylkill Township toolmaker.

WAS ACQUITTED
Giaccio was acquitted in 1962, of pointing and discharging firearms during a dispute with neighbors. He was assessed court costs.

Halstead told the court that "the punishment in the form of costs does not represent a gain to anyone, but rather is aimed at putting the prosecutor and the county back where they were before the prosecution."

Counsel for Giaccio argued, however, that the common law of England and other states never permitted the imposition of costs on innocent defendants.

Cabot Renews China Parley; Checks Split

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The 119th U.S.-Red Chinese ambassadorial meeting began Wednesday in an unusual atmosphere of clicking cameras, floodlights and security guards.

Ambassadors John Moors Cabot and Wang Ping-nan had the start of their face-to-face meeting in Warsaw's Mysliwiecki Palace filmed by a local television crew at the request of Western news media.

Newsman, for probably the first time since the talks began in Geneva in 1955, were allowed into the meeting room to actually witness a brief exchange by the two ambassadors.

CURT SMILES
Cabot and Wang stood behind polished tables 10 feet apart, each flanked by three aides. They exchanged curt smiles and half bows.

Cabot then asked Wang to confirm that it was all right for the scene to be filmed. The Chinese envoy did so with a nod and smile.

Outsiders left the room before the two ambassadors opened their manila folders of instructions for the talk, details of which, by agreement, almost never are made public.

CHECK SPLIT
Cabot generally was thought to be probing for information to help the West measure the Soviet-Chinese split and know what to expect next in such Red China-influenced areas as Laos and Viet Nam.

Wang in the past is understood to have merely repeated many of the charges of Peking Radio.

The ambassadorial-level talks began eight years ago with a U.S. effort to gain return of American citizens detained on the Chinese mainland.

They promise to attract increasing interest as Communist China isolates itself from the rest of the world, including its former Red allies.

Wednesday's unusual turnout of news and cameramen was apparently what prompted Polish authorities to send uniformed police die-aged spread. Not even a firm girdle altogether holds the line. Since I don't need to diet, I suppose I should exercise. But really it's too tiring, time-consuming and boring. There must be some other solution.

The Answer: For any woman with a like problem and the same attitude toward exercise, the only out is firming massage given by an expert masseuse or by a top-flight electronic "exerciser." Neither course is exactly cost-free, in money or time. To tone up weak abdominal muscles, and weaknesses trigger the trouble, requires consistent treatment over a period of months.

Perhaps, as it is a woman's prerogative to change her mind, she might be persuaded to do so in this instance. Her excuses for not exercising are flimsy to begin with. Spot routines take less than 15 minutes daily. Performed to music they become an esthetic kind of play, rather than boring work. If the exerciser is in good health, the fatigue angle is a myth.

For the easiest program on record try this: Stand with feet 10 inches apart, arms stretched overhead. Swing forward from the waist and touch fingers to right knee; rise and repeat to left. Alternating sides, continue for 30 counts.

Now, from the same starting position, bend and re-a-c-h left; repeat to right. Twenty times. Lastly, pull in abdomen and hold—all day! "Stretch, reach and pull-in" are the key words to a smooth line.

AIR OFFICER OKS FILM BAN

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)

—Army Maj. Frank Sutor, aviation officer at Ft. Ord, said Tuesday he approved of the action taken by a helicopter pilot who ordered a civilian photographer to destroy his film at the scene of a helicopter crash Sunday near Half Moon Bay.

"The pilot wanted to preclude any unfavorable comment so far as his navigation was concerned," Sutor told a reporter. "The pilot was concerned whether the man taking the picture might write something that was contrary to the facts."

RAPS PRESS

"Some of the articles I have read in the papers are pretty far out in left field. Sometimes you people write anything," Sutor commented.

The freelance photographer involved, Peter Holt of Menlo Park, said he destroyed the film.

The incident occurred in a rugged mountain area where the Army craft was assisting in recovering four bodies from a civilian plane crash last weekend.

JFK's 3 Main Problems Have Piled Up For Decade Without Any Real Solution

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The problems which have suddenly piled up on President Kennedy have been accumulating, seeking solutions, for the greater part of a decade.

They just happened to land in his lap all in a bunch although they seemed invisible to him earlier in the year. There are three: the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, the civil rights bill and Viet Nam.

Just a little over 10 years ago the Russians exploded their first hydrogen bomb.

TEST BACKGROUNDS

Since then this country and Russia have set off many atomic explosions, talked of ways to end them, did stop them voluntarily for three years, resumed, and finally this summer decided to agree to stop them except underground.

At this moment, despite all the talking the United States has done to the world about wanting a suspension of tests Kennedy cannot be absolutely positive the Senate will approve, although it probably will.

It was only nine years ago that the Supreme Court set in motion a whole series of unpredictable events by declaring public school segregation unconstitutional.

TAKES 9 YEARS

It has taken nine years to break down opposition to compliance with the court in every state, even to only a token degree. Mississippi, for instance, has had one university desegregated but no grammar school.

But it was that school decision, which said in effect segregation by its very nature is unconstitutional, that gave Negroes heart and support in demanding an end to all forms of segregation.

The result has been demonstrations, riots, and some progress. Tuesday's feeble effort at defying school desegregation in Alabama by Gov. George C. Wallace, until Kennedy federalized his National Guard, was just an annoyance.

SHIFT TO CONGRESS

The real drama shifts now to Congress and a fight over the civil rights bill which Kennedy offered only late in this session, and then only after he had been pushed into doing so by Negroes' militant demonstrations for civil rights.

It is also nine years since the French, learning nothing after keeping the Vietnamese people in subjection for generations, finally collapsed in their war against the Indochinese Communists and left half the country to them.

To save the rest of Indochina, now called South Viet Nam, and the rest of Southeast Asia from communism, the United States has had to help with men and supplies and money, supporting the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

HELPER ROLE

He has run it as a dictatorship. The United States didn't get tough but just played the role of willing helper in the fight against the Reds. Ill will against Diem has been piling up in Viet Nam.

His recent repressions, against Buddhists and students, rocked his hold, showed diminishing public confidence in the Diem regime. But the United States still backs him, still is afraid to get tough. Kennedy said this week the United States must pursue a policy of patience in Viet Nam and avoid getting tough because that might collapse the government and open all Viet Nam and Southeast Asia to communism.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Board of Education here voted Tuesday to substitute a period of

WRITE CURB ON SPENDING INTO TAX BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress will be on record as urging the President to pledge "all reasonable means to restrain government spending" if it passes the $11-billion tax cut bill in its present form.

The administration also would be on notice that Congress expects any increased revenue to be used first to eliminate budget deficits and to reduce the public debt.

The majority of the House Ways and Means Committee wrote this language into the bill Tuesday after the close defeat of a Republican move to tie part of the tax cut directly to a limitation on spending.

SPENDING CURBS

Republicans, however, will renew the effort to force spending curbs at every legislative opportunity, and they count on the support of some fiscally conservative Democrats.

In addition to the drive to tie in spending limitations — which President Kennedy said would dilute the business stimulating potential of the tax cut — the legislation faces delay.

The administration is redoubling efforts to have Congress finish action on the tax cut this year, so that withholding rates can be reduced Jan. 1, leaving more spending money in pay envelopes.

As the bill is written, two-thirds of the individual tax cuts, eventually amounting to about $100 to $200 a year for most wage-earning and salaried families, would be effective Jan. 1. The remaining cut would come a year later.

silent meditation for Bible reading as part of opening exercises in city schools.

The action was taken to comply with the U. S. Supreme Court ruling striking down Bible reading in Pennsylvania's public schools.

Investigate Prospect Of Job Discrimination Against Whites In Competition For New Jobs

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—With Negro organizations and many federal, state and local governmental agencies pressing for a better break for Negro workers, hiring practices and contests for jobs have become an acute issue.

As a result of these pressures, there have been some questions raised whether a reverse discrimination—against white workers—might develop.

An Associated Press survey of some of the nation's major industrial centers showed that more Negroes are being hired for better jobs but it also indicated there is no great rush to provide employment for them on the basis of race.

FUROR IN DALLAS

On the other hand, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who heads President Kennedy's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, said industry had exceeded expectations in providing more and better jobs for non-whites.

Promotion of three Negroes to post office supervisory jobs, although they were lower than 53 white men on the established merit scale, set off a furor in Dallas.

Eleven high-ranking white postal workers filed suit against the Post Office Department, claiming they were discriminated against because of their race.

A Seattle employment agency operator reported two instances in the last month in which white workers complained they had lost their jobs because they had been replaced with Negroes.

"ONE MIGHT SAY"

Dudley Cameron, deputy area manager of the California Department of Employment in San Francisco, reported an increasing inclination to hire Negroes.

"One might say it is discrimination against whites," he said.

In New York City, two members of the City Commission on Human Rights suggested that racial bias in the building trades might be eased by favoring Negroes over white applicants for apprenticeship.

RECRUITING NEGROES

About 70 St. Louis area firms have made efforts since the first of this year to hire Negroes for the first time on jobs other than menial capacity. Negro leaders and employment experts said that there have been no complaints of discrimination in reverse.

The Michigan Fair Employment Practices Commission pointed out that employment quotas based on race would be against state law. It said it had processed a few reverse discrimination complaints several months ago.

Five big Chicago downtown banks invited the Chicago Urban League to help them recruit more Negro employees. Edwin C. Perry, executive director of the league, said the jobs range from page girl to management trainee.

BACK FOR MORE

Archie Williams, chairman of the Boston Labor and Industry Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said there has been no rush to employ Negroes but there has been a rush to set the groundwork to get more jobs for Negroes.

A definite increase in requests for Negroes to fill jobs in industry and business was noted by Ernest Cooper, executive director of the Urban League in Cleveland. He said many of the orders are from firms that have tried perhaps one Negro, found that it has worked and are back for more.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A community dance honoring its youth in a "salute to the future" erupted Tuesday night in a fist-swinging racial melee.

Teen-agers pelted policemen with candy bars, passed out earlier in the program as gifts. Three youths were taken to a hospital after being stoned while leaving the program. A 14-year-old boy was knocked unconscious in a fight in the stadium stands.

Burglar Swipes Phony Liquor

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Even being a burglary victim sometime has its laughs.

Take the case of the guy who broke into Joe Barizza's liquor store, looted the cash register and grabbed a bottle out of a window display.

All that real whiskey on the shelves, and he had to go and steal a dummy fifth — full of bourbon-colored water.

Saves Family In Underwear

ROSSVILLE, Ga. (AP)—It was 10 degrees outside when Clyde Varnes' home caught fire, but he acted quickly to save himself, his wife and five children.

Clad only in his underwear, Varnes leaped from a second-story window, ran next door for a ladder and returned to lead and carry his family to safety before firemen arrived.

Varnes and his wife both suffered burns but the children, age 1 to 10, all were unscathed.

Motor vehicle registrations in this country will total about 82 million during 1963, an increase of 3 million over the previous record set last year. By way of comparison, only 8,000 vehicles were registered in 1900, and only 32.4 million as recently as 1940.

TYPHOON KILLS 15 IN PACIFIC

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Typhoon Gloria, leaving at least 15 persons dead in the Philippines, raged across Formosa Wednesday and struck Taipei with winds of 100 miles an hour that devastated thousands of homes.

Floods swept through residential areas. Winds uprooted trees throughout this city of one million inhabitants.

First police reports said at least two persons were killed and three injured by the typhoon as it swept over Formosa toward mainland China.

The Philippine government rushed aid to more than 100,000 families struck by the backwash of the storm.

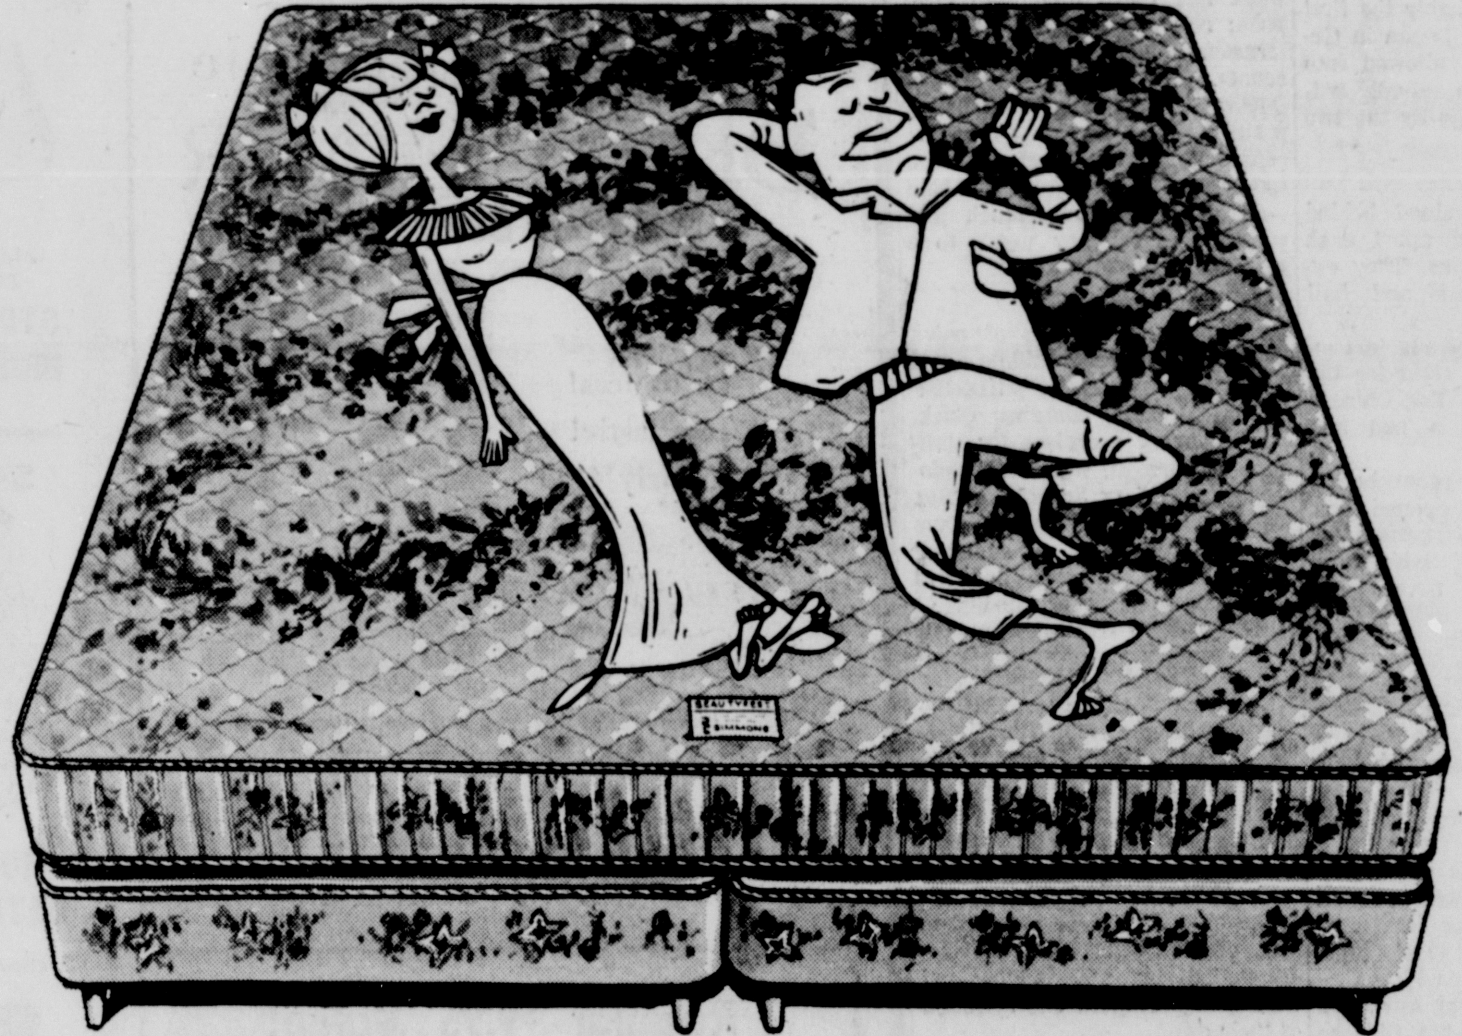

Hardest hit was northern Luzon where most victims were homeless, stranded or short of food as floods raged through the area. The Philippine news service said 13 persons were buried by landslides in Baguio City north of Manila and two drowned in flooded rivers.

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Several men were injured Wednesday in a rock throwing labor fight at the construction site of a new motel on the Industrial Highway in nearby Tinticum.

Police Chief Thomas Revello, who was struck on the leg by a rock, said 25 to 30 men started brawling about 8 a.m.
